SUPPLEMENT

TO THE

LONDON GAZETTE of JANUARY 23, 1827.

January 22, 1827.

THE Remains of His late Royal Highness Frederick Duke of York and of Albany lay in state in the Royal Apartments in St. James's-Palace, attended by an Equerry and two of the Aides-de-Camp of His late Royal Highness, two Heralds of Arms, two of His Majesty's Gentlemen Ushers, two Gentle-

Gentlemen of the Privy Chamber, ten of the Honourable Band of Gentlemen Pensioners, with two of their Officers, and by a party of the Grenadier Regiment of Guards, during Thursday the 18th and Friday the 19th instant. The Body, covered with a black velvet Pall, adorned with Escocheons of the Arms of His late Royal Highness, and the Coronet and Field-Marshal's Baton of His late Royal Highness laid thereon, was placed upon a platform, under a Canopy of black cloth, also adorned with Escocheons. At the head of the Corpse were seated the Equerry and the Aides-de-Camp, and the Heralds stood at the feet. On each side of the Body stood the Gentlemen Ushers and Gentlemen of the Privy Chamber, and between them and the Grenadiers, who lined each side of the platform, bearing their muskets reversed, stood three of the Band of Gentlemen Pensioners supporting Banners.

The State Apartment was hung with black cloth, and the Rooms adjoining were also hung with black cloth, and lined by Yeomen of the Guard.

The Public were admitted to the State Apartment from eleven until four o'clock on each day.

On Saturday morning the 20th instant, at eight o'clock precisely, the Procession having been formed, the Remains of His late Royal Highness were removed from St. James's-Palace, escorted by a Field-Officer's Guard, consisting of one hundred and twenty men of the 2d Regiment of Life Guards, with a Standard, and moved in the following order:

Trumpets

Trumpets and Kettle Drums of the two Regiments of Life Guards, and the Drums and Fifes of the Foot Guards.

Knight-Marshal's Men on foot with black staves.

A mourning coach drawn by four horses, conveying the Servants of His late Royal Highness.

A mourning coach drawn by four horses, conveying the Pages of His late Royal Highness.

A mourning coach drawn by six horses, conveying the Medical Attendants and Private Chaplain of His late Royal Highness.

A mourning coach drawn by six horses, conveying the Secretaries of His late Royal Highness.

A mourning coach drawn by six horses conveying the Aides-de-Camp of His late Royal Highness.

A mourning coach drawn by six horses, conveying the Equerries of His late Royal Highness, and the Assistants to the Adjutant-General and Quartermaster-General.

A mourning coach drawn by six horses, conveying the Adjutant-General, the Quartermaster-General, and their two Deputies.

The state carriage of His late Royal Highness drawn by six horses, conveying Norroy King of Arms (acting for Clarenceux), with the Coronet of His late Royal Highness, attended by two Gentlemen Ushers of the Privy Chamber as Supporters.

Ten of the Yeomen of the Guard with partizans reversed.

Escort of Life Guards.

THE HEARSE,

adorned with Escocheons of His late Royal Highness's Arms, and drawn by eight of the King's black horses, driven by His Majesty's Body Coachman.

Ten of the Yeomen of the Guard with partizans reversed.

Escort of Life Guards.

A mourning coach drawn by six horses, conveying Garter Principal King of Arms, and two Gentlemen Assistants.

A mourning coach drawn by six horses, conveying the two Executors named in the Will of His late Royal Highness.

Carriages of His Majesty.

Carriages of the Royal Family.

At Cranford-bridge (where the Procession arrived at one o'clock and halted for two hours) the first Escort was relieved by a similar Guard of the 1st Regiment of Life Guards, the previous Escort having fallen into the rear and formed the Rear Guard.

Upon arrival at Frogmore, the Procession was joined by the Servants and Grooms of His Majesty and of the Royal Family, in deep mourning, on foot, each bearing a flambeau, and by the Trumpets and Kettle Drums, Drums and Fifes of the Royal Household, also on foot.

The whole Procession, through Windsor to the Castle-gate, was flanked by the Life Guards and Infantry of the Line, every sixth man bearing a flambeau; and the approach from the Castle-gate to the entrance of St. George's Chapel was lined by a Battalion of the Grenadier Guards.

Upon arrival at the South Porch of St. George's Chapel, the Servants and Grooms, the Trumpets and Drums filed off. The Body was then removed from the Hearse, and carried by ten Yeomen of the Guard into the Chapel.

At the entrance the Dean and Canons, attended by the Choir, received the Body, and the Procession (which had been previously formed), being flanked by the Grenadiers of the Foot Guards and a Detachment of the Royal Regiment of Horse Guards (Blue), every fourth man bearing a flambeau, moved down the South Aisle and up the Nave into the Choir, in the following order:

Lieut.-Genl. Sir Herbert Taylor, G. C. H. in a long black cloak.

His Majesty's Ministers, viz.:

The Earl of Eldon, Lord High Chancellor.

The Earl of Westmorland, K. G. Lord Privy Seal.

The Duke of Wellington, K. G.
His Grace walked as a Supporter of the Pall.

The Earl Bathurst, K. G.
and
Viscount Melville, K. T.
walked as Assistants to the Chief Mourner.

The Right Honourable Robert Peel.

The Right Honourable George Canning.

The Right Honourable Charles W. Williams-Wynn.

The Right Honourable William Huskisson

Followed by a numerous assemblage of Peers, Privy Councillors, Baronets, General Officers, and other persons of distinction, who had signified their anxious desire to attend.

Gentlemen Ushers.

Gentlemen Pensioners with their axes reversed.

Yeomen of the Guard with their partizans reversed.

Upon the arrival within the Choir, the Body was placed upon a Platform, and the Coronet, Baton, and Cushions laid thereon.

The Chief Mourner sat on a Chair at the Head of the Corpse, and the Supporters stood on each side.

The Princes of the Blood Royal were seated near the Chief Mourner.

The Lord Chamberlain of His Majesty's Household took his place at the Feet of the Corpse; and the Supporters of the Pall, and of the Canopy, were arranged on each side of the Body: The Assistant Mourners, the Executors of His late Royal Highness, and the Trainbearers, stood behind the Princes of the Blood Royal; and the Colonels, who carried the Banners, on each side below the Altar.

The Great Officers of State, His Majesty's-Ministers, the Nobility, the Archbishop of York, the Bishops, Privy Councillors, Judges, and Law Officers, were placed in the Stalls of the Knights of the Garter. The Grooms of the Bed-Chamber to the King, the Equerries, Aides-de-Camp, and those who walked immediately before the Law Officers, as well as the General Officers and other persons of distinction who followed His Majesty's Ministers, occupied the remaining Seats below the Stalls of the Knights of the Garter on each side of the Choir: and those who walked before the Equerries, were arranged on each side of the Altar.

The Part of the Service before the Interment, and the Anthem, being performed, the Body was deposited in the Royal Vault; and the Service being concluded, Sir George Nayler, Knt. Garter Principal King of Arms, pronounced, near the Grave, the Styles of His late Royal Highness, as follows:

"THUS it hath pleased Almighty God to take out of this transitory life, unto His Divine Mercy, the "late Most High, Most Mighty, and Illustrious Prince, FREDERICK DUKE OF YORK and OF "ALBANY, EARL OF ULSTER; Knight of the Most Noble Order of the Garter, First and Principal "Knight-Grand-Cross of the Most Honourable Military Order of the Bath, Knight-Grand-Cross of the "Royal Hanoverian Guelphic Order, and next Brother of the Most High, Most Mighty, and Most Ex-"cellent Monarch GEORGE THE FOURTH, by the Grace of God, of the United Kingdom of "Great Britain and Ireland, King, Defender of the Faith, King of Hanover, and Duke of Brunswick and "Lunenburg; whom God bless and preserve with long life, health and honour, and all worldly happiness."

After which His Royal Highness the Chief Mourner, His Royal Highness the Duke of Sussex, His Royal Highness the Duke of Gloucester, the Great Officers of State, Nobility, and others who had composed the Procession retired.

All Persons who assisted at the Interment appeared in full-dress Black, and the Knights of the several Orders wore their respective Collars.

Court

Court of King's-Bench, January 31, 1827.

The following Warrant, under the King's Sign Manual, having been issued under the authority of the Statute 3 George IVth, cap. 102, was this day openly and publicly notified and declared in this Court, in pursuance of the said Statute, viz.

GEORGE, R.

Whereas by an Act, passed in the session of Parliament holden in the third year of our reign, intituled "An Act to repeal an Act, of the first and second year of His present Majesty, for facilitating the dispatch of business in the Court of King's-Bench, and to make further provisions in lieu thereof," it is, amongst other things, enacted, that from and after the passing of the said Act, it shall and may be lawful to and for Us, Our heirs and successors, and We and They are thereby authorised, from time to time, as to Us or Them shall seem meet, by Warrant under Our or Their Sign Manual, directed to the Judges of Our said Court, to direct and require the Judges of Our said Court, or any two or more of them, to meet at Serjeants-Inn-Hall, Westminster-Hall, or some other convenient place to be by them appointed, on such and so many days in the vacation or interval between any Terms as to us, Our heirs and successors, shall seem fit and proper, for the dispatch of such matters, as at the end of the Term mentioned in such Warrant may be depending in Our said Court, whether on the Crown or Plea side thereof; and whereas We have been given to understand, that numerous matters are now depending in Our said Court, which cannot be dispatched during this present Hilary Term, and which ought to be dispatched with all convenient speed; now, therefore, We do hereby, in pursuance of the said Act, direct and require you the Lord Chief Justice, and the other Judges of our said Court before us, or any two or more of you, to meet at Serjeants-Inn-Hall, Westminster-Hall, or some other convenient place to be by you appointed according to the said Act, on Tuesday the thirteenth day of February now next coming, and from thence daily until and on Friday the 23d day of the same month of February, and also on Wednesday the twenty-fifth day of April next following, and from thence daily until and on Tuesday the first day of May next, if the state of the business shall appear to you to make it requisite so to do, for the dispatch of such matters as may be depending in Our said Court at the end of the present Hilary Term, whether on the Crown or Plea side thereof; provided always, that if the attendance of any one of you at the session of Oyer and Terminer and Gaol Delivery for the county of Middlesex, or at any such session on any Circuit, shall be found requisite, during any part of the time herein mentioned, and another of you shall also, during such attendance, be sitting for the trial of causes at Nisi Prius, then it shall be in the discretion of the remaining two of you either to meet or not to meet, in obedience hereto, according to the nature of the business that may be likely to come before you during such attendance.

Given at Our Court at Windsor, this twenty-ninth day of January one thousand eight hundred and twenty-seven, in the eighth year of Our reign.

By His Majesty's command,

ROBERT PEEL.

BERWICK-UPON-TWEED.—RIGHT OF ELECTION.

Lunæ, 19° die Martii 1827.

Whereas the Select Committee appointed to try and determine the merits of the petition of the several persons whose names are thereunto subscribed, electors of the town of Berwick-upon-Tweed, complaining of an undue election and return for the said town, have this day reported to the House of Commons, that the merits of the petition did depend in part upon the right of election, and that, therefore, the Committee required the Counsel for the several parties to deliver to the Clerk of the Committee, statements in writing of the right of election for which they respectively contended; that in consequence thereof the Counsel for the petitioners delivered in a statement as follows: "That the "right of voting for elections of Members of Parliament "for the town and borough of Berwick-upon-"Tweed is in the freemen of the said borough "residing, inhabiting, and paying scot and lot "therein:"—That the Counsel for the sitting Member delivered in a statement as follows: "That the "right of election is in the freemen of the town "and borough of Berwick-upon-Tweed:"—That upon the statement delivered in by the Counsel for the petitioners, the Committee have determined, that the right of election, as set forth in the said statement, is not the right of election for the town and borough of Berwick-upon-Tweed. That upon the statement delivered in by the Counsel for the sitting Member, the Committee have determined, that the right of election, as set forth in the said statement, is not the right of election for the said town and borough. That the Committee have determined, that the right of voting is in the Burgesses who have been regularly admitted and sworn; that a Bur-

Burgess who has gone to reside without the precincts of the borough, whenever he returns within its limits has a right to exercise and enjoy all the rights and privileges of the borough, unless he has, in the mean time, for just cause and in regular form, been amoved by the Corporation, and so disfranchised:

I do hereby give notice, in pursuance of the directions of an Act, made in the twenty-eighth year of the reign of His late Majesty, intituled "An Act "for the further regulation of the trials of contro-"verted elections or returns of Members to serve "in Parliament."

St. James's, May 10, 1827.

A Chapter of the Most Noble Order of the Garter having been summoned for this day, the following Knights Companions, in their mantles and collars, assembled in the Entrée-room, viz.:

Their Royal Highnesses the Dukes of Clarence and Gloucester, the Earl of Westmorland, the Earl Spencer, Marquess Camden, the Earl of Hardwicke, the Duke of Beaufort, the Earl of Lonsdale, the Duke of Newcastle, the Duke of Wellington, Earl Bathurst, the Marquess of Anglesey, the Duke of Northumberland, the Marquess of Hertford, and the Duke of Dorset, attended by the undernamed Officers of the Order, viz.: the Lord Bishop of Winchester, Prelate of the Order; the Honourable and Reverend the Dean of Windsor, Register of the Order; Sir George Nayler, Knight, Garter Principal King of Arms; and Sir Thomas Tyrwhitt, Knight, Gentleman Usher of the Black Rod.

At three o'clock, the Knights Companions were called over by Garter, and, with the Officers of the Order, proceeded into the presence of the Sovereign, in the Throne-room.

The Sovereign and Knights Companions being seated, the Prelate signified to the Chapter the Sovereign's royal will and pleasure that the three vacant stalls in the Royal Chapel of Saint George, at Windsor, be filled; and as by the statutes none but a Knight can be elected, His Grace George-William-Frederick Duke of Leeds was introduced, and knighted by His Majesty with the Sword of State, and His Grace, having kissed the Sovereign's hand, retired. After which His Grace William-Spencer Duke of Devonshire, and the Most Honourable Brownlow Marquess of Exeter, were severally and successively introdueed, and knighted with the same ceremonies.

The

The Knights Companions then proceeded to the election, and the suffrages having been collected by the Prelate, were by him presented to the Sovereign, who was pleased to command him to declare, and he accordingly declared, that the Most Noble George-William-Frederick Duke of Leeds had been duly elected a Knight Companion of the Most Noble Order of the Garter.

Then, by the Sovereign's command, His Grace was received at the door of the Throne-room by the Marquess of Hertford and the Duke of Dorset, the two Junior Knights Companions present, and conducted between them to His Majesty, preceded by Garter (bearing the ensigns of the Order upon a crimson velvet cushion) and by Black Rod. The Duke of Leeds kneeling near the Sovereign, and Garter presenting on his knee the Garter, His Majesty, assisted by their Royal Highnesses the Dukes of Clarence and Gloucester, the two Senior Knights Companions present, buckled it on His Grace's left leg, the Prelate pronouncing the usual admonition.

Garter next presented, in like manner, the ribband with the George, and His Majesty, with the assistance of the two Senior Knights Companions, put the same over His Grace's left shoulder, the Prelate pronouncing the admonition. The Duke having again kissed the Sovereign's hand, and received the congratulations of each of the Knights Companions, withdrew.

The Chapter proceeded to a second election, and the suffrages being collected by the Prelate, and presented to the Sovereign, the Most Noble William-Spencer Duke of Devonshire, was, by His Majesty's command, declared duly elected, and His Grace was introduced and invested with the Garter, and the ribband and George, in the same manner as the Duke of Leeds had been, and the like formalities having been observed, he withdrew.

The Chapter then proceeded to a third election, and and the suffrages being collected as before, the Most Honourable Brownlow Marquess of Exeter, was, by the Sovereign's command, declared duly elected, and His Lordship being introduced and invested with the Garter, and the ribband and George, with the same ceremonies, also withdrew.

The Prelate then, by command of the Sovereign, read a new statute, bearing date the 16th day of March last, dispensing with the existing statutes, as far as may be required for the especial purpose therein mentioned, and declaring His Imperial Majesty Nicholas the First, Emperor and Autocrator of all the Russias, a Knight of the said Most Noble Order.

The Chapter being ended, the Knights Companions and Officers of the Order retired from the presence of the Sovereign, with the usual reverences.

St. James's-Palace, May 10, 1827.

His Majesty was this day pleased to invest the Earl of Aboyne and the Earl of Brooke and Warwick with the ensigns of the Most Ancient and Most Noble Order of the Thistle.

His Majesty having signed the several instruments for that purpose, which were previously to the ceremony, presented to the Sovereign by Robert Quarme, Esq. Gentleman Usher of the Green Rod, in the absence of the Secretary.

The Earl of Aboyne was called into the royal presence, being preceded by His Royal Highness the Duke of Clarence, and supported by the Duke of Atholl and the Earl of Aberdeen, the two next Senior Knights present.

Upon entering into the royal presence, with the usual reverences, the Earl of Aboyne was presented by the said two Knights, and kneeling down, was knighted by the King with the sword of state; His Lord-

Lordship, having kissed His Majesty's hand, rose up, when the Gentleman Usher of the Green Rod administered the oath to His Lordship; then Green Rod, kneeling, presented the ensigns of the Order, upon a crimson velvet cushion, to the King, who put the ribband over the Earl's left shoulder; and his Lordship, having again had the honour of kissing His Majesty's hand, withdrew, with the usual reverences, in the same manner in which he had entered.

The Earl of Brooke and Warwick was, in like manner, presented to the King, received the honour of Knighthood, and was invested with the ensigns of the said Most Ancient and Most Noble Order.

The ceremony was performed in the King's Closet, several of the Great Officers of State and of the Court being present.

BOROUGH OF LUDLOW.--RIGHT OF ELECTION NOTICE.

Martis, 8° die Maii 1827.

Whereas the Select Committee appointed to try and determine the merits of the petition of Edmund Lechmere Charlton, Esq. and others, complaining of an undue election and return for the borough of Ludlow, have this day reported to the House of Commons, that it appeared to the Committee, that the merits of the petition did depend in part upon the right of election, and that, therefore, the said Committee required the Counsel for the petitioners and the Counsel for the sitting Member, to deliver to the Clerk of the said Committee, statements in writing of the right of election for which they respectively contended; that in consequence thereof, the Counsel for the petitioners delivered in a statement as follows: "That the right of election for "Ludlow is in all the resident Common Burgesses, "as well as the twelve and the five-and-twenty "being

" being inhabitant householders:"—That the Counsel for the sitting Member delivered in a statement as follows: " That the right of voting for Members to " serve in Parliament for the borough of Ludlow is " in the twelve Aldermen, the twenty-five Common " Councilmen, and the rest of the sworn Burgesses " at large of the said borough:"—That upon the statement delivered in by the Counsel for the petitioners, the said Committee have determined, that the right of election, as set forth in the said statement, is not the right of election for the said borough. That upon the statement delivered in by the Counsel for the sitting Member, the said Committee have determined, that the right of election, as set forth in the said statement, is the right of election for the said borough:

I do hereby give this notice, in pursuance of the directions of an Act, made in the twenty-eighth year of the reign of His late Majesty, intituled " An " Act for the further regulation of the trials of con- " troverted elections or returns of Members to serve " in Parliament."

Given under my hand, the 8th day of May 1827,

CHARLES MANNERS SUTTON, Speaker.

GEORGE, R.

Whereas by an Act, passed in the session of Parliament holden in the third year of our reign, intituled "An Act to repeal an Act, of the first and second year of His present Majesty, for facilitating the dispatch of business in the Court of King's-Bench, and to make further provisions in lieu thereof," it is, among other things, enacted, that that from and after the passing of the said Act, it shall and may be lawful to and for Us, Our heirs and successors, and We and They are thereby authorised, from time to time, as to Us or Them shall seem meet, by Warrant under Our or Their Sign Manual, directed to the Judges of Our said Court, to direct and require the Judges of Our said Court, or any two or more of them, to meet at Serjeants-Inn-Hall, Westminster-Hall, or some other convenient place to be by them appointed, on such and so many days in the vacation or interval between any Terms as to us, Our heirs and successors, shall seem fit and proper, for the dispatch of such matters, as at the end of the Term mentioned in such Warrant may be depending in Our said Court, whether on the Crown or Plea side thereof; and whereas We have been given to understand, that numerous matters are now depending in Our said Court, which cannot be dispatched during this present Trinity Term, and which ought to be dispatched with all convenient speed; now, therefore, We do hereby, in pursuance of the said Act, direct and require you the Lord Chief Justice, and the other Judges of our said Court before Us, or any two or more of you, to meet at Serjeants-Inn-Hall, Westminster-Hall, or some other convenient place to be by you appointed according to the said Act, on Thursday the fifth day of July next, and from thence daily until and upon Wednesday the eleventh day of July, and again on Monday the twenty-ninth day of October next, and from thence daily until the ensuing Michaelmas Term, for the dispatch of such matters as may be depending in Our said Court at the end of the present Trinity Term, whether on the Crown or Plea side thereof; provided always, that if the attendance of any one of you at the session of Oyer and Terminer and Gaol Delivery for the county of Middlesex, or at any such session on any Circuit, shall be found requisite, during any part of the time herein mentioned, and another of you shall also, during such attendance, be sitting for the trial of causes at Nisi Prius, then it shall be in the discretion of the remaining two of you either to meet or not to meet, in obedience hereto, according to the nature of the business that may be likely to come before you during such attendance.

Given at Our Court at Windsor, the twentieth day of June one thousand eight hundred and twenty-seven, in the eighth year of Our reign.

By His Majesty's command,

W. STURGES BOURNE.

The Speech of the Lords Commissioners to both Houses of Parliament, on Monday July 2, 1827.

My Lords, and Gentlemen,

WE are commanded by His Majesty to express to you the satisfaction which His Majesty feels in being enabled, by the state of the public business, to release you from further attendance in Parliament.

His Majesty directs us to inform you, that He continues to receive from all Foreign Powers assurances of their earnest desire to cultivate relations of friendship with His Majesty; and that His Majesty's best efforts, as well as His Majesty's communications with His Allies, are unceasingly directed to the termination of existing hostilities, and to the maintenance of general peace.

Gentle-

Gentlemen of the House of Commons,

His Majesty commands us to thank you for the supplies which you have granted for the service of the present year, and to assure you that His Majesty has given directions for a careful revision of the financial state of the country, with a view to every diminution of expenditure which may be found consistent with the necessary demands of the public service, and with the permanent interests, good faith, and honour of the Nation.

My Lords, and Gentlemen,

His Majesty is confident that you participate with His Majesty in the pleasure which His Majesty derives from the indications of a gradual revival of employment in the manufacturing districts.

His Majesty trusts that although your deliberations on the corn laws have not led, during the present session, to a permanent settlement of that important question, the consideration of it will be resumed by you early in the ensuing session, and that such an arrangement of it may finally be adopted as shall satisfy the reasonable wishes, and reconcile the substantial interests of all classes of His Majesty's subjects.

St. James's-Palace, June 30, 1827.

THIS day the Right Honourable the Lord Mayor, the Aldermen, Recorder, Sheriffs, Common Council, and Officers of the City of London, waited upon His Majesty with the following Address; which was read by Newman Knowlys, Esq. the Recorder:

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

The dutiful and loyal Address of the Lord Mayor, Aldermen, and Commons of the City of London, in Common Council assembled.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Lord Mayor, Aldermen, and Commons of the City of London, in Common Council assembled, beg leave to renew to your Majesty the expression of our warmest feelings of veneration and respect.

Whilst we testify our unbounded regard for the Constitution of our Country, of which the prerogative of the Crown forms a most valuable and essential part, we rejoice to find that in the formation of a new Administration, your Majesty appears to have exercised that prerogative, under circumstances of great difficulty, in a manner highly dignified and constitutional.

We trust that your Majesty's Ministers, acting upon an enlightened and liberal policy, will so wield the powers entrusted to them by your Majesty, that the honour and prerogative of the Crown may be upheld, and that the liberties and happiness of the people may be maintained and protected.

Permit us to assure your Majesty, that we shall sincerely co-operate to the utmost of our power in every measure which may be essential to promote these important objects; and that we yield to none of your Majesty's faithful subjects, in loyalty and attachment towards your Majesty's Royal Person and Family.

Signed, by order of Court,

Henry Woodthorpe.

To which Address His Majesty was pleased to return the following most gracious Answer:

" I receive with satisfaction the loyal and dutiful Address of the Lord Mayor, Aldermen, and Commons of the City of London.

" Whatever difficulties I may have experienced in the exercise of my just Prerogative on the occasion to which that Address refers, the consciousness that I had no other object in view than the publick good, has enabled me to meet and to overcome them."

LONDON GAZETTE of JULY 6, 1827.

At the Court at St. James's, the 30th day of June 1827,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

THIS day the Right Honourable Stephen Rumbold Lushington was, by His Majesty's command, sworn of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, and took his place at the Board accordingly.

At the Court at St. James's, the 30th day of June 1827,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the fifty-sixth year of His late Majesty's reign, cap. 38, intituled "An Act to empower His Majesty to suspend "the ballot or enrolment for the local militia," it is enacted, that it shall be lawful for His Majesty, by any Order in Council, to direct that no ballot or enrolment for the local militia shall take place, but that such ballot and enrolment shall remain and continue suspended for the period specified in any such Order in Council, and from time to time by any like Order or Orders in Council, to continue such suspension so long as His Majesty shall deem the same expedient, any thing in any Act or Acts of Parliament to the contrary notwithstanding; and whereas by an Order in Council, made the twelfth day of July one thousand eight hundred and twenty-six, it was ordered by His Majesty in Council, that no ballot or enrolment for the local militia should take place for the space of one year from the sixteenth of July one thousand eight hundred and twenty-six, but that the ballot should remain and continue suspended for the space of one year from the said sixteenth of July; and whereas it is deemed expedient to continue such suspension of the ballot and enrolment for the local militia for the space of one year from and after the sixteenth day of July in this year; it is, therefore, ordered by His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, that no ballot or enrolment for the local militia do take place for the space of one year from and after the sixteenth day of July in this year, but that the ballot ballot or enrolment for the local militia do remain and continue suspended for the space of one year from and after the sixteenth day of July next.

At the Court at St. James's, the 30th day of June 1827,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS there was this day read at the Board a Memorial from His Royal Highness the Lord High Admiral, dated the fourth of June instant, in the words following, viz.

WHEREAS by various Orders in Council, dated the seventeenth September one thousand eight hundred and nineteen, thirty-first January one thousand eight hundred and twenty-three, nineteenth January one thousand eight hundred and twenty-four, twenty-third June one thousand eight hundred and twenty-four, and second February one thousand eight hundred and twenty-five, your Majesty was graciously pleased to declare and direct in what manner and proportions the rewards which, under the several Acts of Parliament at those respective periods in force, were payable to the officers, petty officers, and seamen of your Majesty's Navy, and to the officers, non-commissioned officers, and privates of the Royal Marines, for the apprehension of persons offending against the laws for the prevention of smuggling, and also the rewards of seizures made under the same laws, should be divided and distributed; and whereas the said Acts of Parliament having since been repealed, the Orders in Council before mentioned have become inoperative: and whereas by an

an Act, passed in the sixth year of your Majesty's reign, cap. 108, intituled "An Act for the preven-" tion of smuggling," certain other rewards are established and directed to be paid and allowed to any officer or other person detaining any person liable to detention, under that or any other Act relating to your Majesty's Revenue of Customs, and in respect of the produce of seizures made under such Acts, which rewards respectively are thereby directed to be paid, divided, and distributed (so far as respects your Majesty's Navy and Royal Marines) to and amongst the officers, petty officers, and seamen of your Majesty's Navy, and the officers, non-commissioned officers, and privates of Royal Marines acting under the orders of the Lord High Admiral, or any Commissioners for executing the office of Lord High Admiral, in such proportions, and according to such rules, regulations, and orders as your Majesty shall, by your Order or Orders in Council, or by your Royal Proclamation in that behalf, be pleased to direct and appoint; I beg leave, therefore, most humbly to submit whether your Majesty will not be graciously pleased to revoke the several Orders above mentioned, and, by your Order in Council, to establish, declare, and direct, that from henceforth the several rewards which, under the laws now or hereafter to be in force for the prevention of smuggling, are or shall be payable to the officers, petty officers, and seamen of your Majesty's Fleet, and to the officers, non-commissioned officers, and privates of Royal Marines acting under my orders, or under the orders of the Lord High Admiral, or of any Commissioners for executing the office of Lord High Admiral of your Majesty's United Kingdom for the time being, as well for the detention of offenders against those laws, as for seizures made under the same (except in the several cases hereinafter mentioned, as to those persons stationed and employed on shore in the prevention of smuggling, and acting under under my orders, or those of the Lord High Admiral, or Commissioners as aforesaid, and for which especial provision is hereinafter proposed to be made) shall be divided and distributed in the proportions, and according to the regulations set forth and expressed in the following scheme, viz.

The amount of such rewards and produce of seizures so respectively payable as aforesaid to be divided into eight equal parts:

The captain or captains of any of your Majesty's ships, and the commander or commanders of any of your Majesty's ships or sloops of war, or the officer or officers respectively commanding such ships or sloops of war, who shall have been actually on board at the time of any such detention or seizure, shall have three of the said eighth parts. But in cases where captains and commanders shall be present together at any such detention or seizure, the said three eighth parts shall be so divided as that the captain or captains shall receive double the amount of the share or shares of the commander or commanders. And if such ships or sloops shall be under the command of a flag or flags, the flag-officer or flag-officers so commanding shall have one of the said three eighths, and the remaining two eighths shall be divided in such proportion as that the captain or captains shall, in like manner, have double the amount of the share or shares of the commander or commanders.

The sea lieutenants, captains of marines, and land forces serving as marines, and the master on board, shall have one eighth part to be equally divided amongst them.

The lieutenants and quartermasters of marines, and lieutenants and ensigns and quartermasters of land forces serving as marines, secretaries of admirals or of commodores of the first class (such secretaries being present at the seizure), second masters, chaplains, lains, pursers, surgeons, surgeons' assistants, gunners, boatswains, and carpenters, who shall be on board shall have one eighth part to be equally divided amongst them.

The first class of petty officers, namely; mates, midshipmen, masters' assistants, secretarys' clerks, captains' clerks, schoolmasters, masters at arms, admirals' coxswains, armourers, caulkers, rope-makers, sail-makers, gunners' mates, boatswains' mates, carpenters' mates, ships' corporals, quartermasters, captains' coxswains, coxswains of the launch, ships' cooks, captains of the hold, captains of the forecastle, pilots, serjeants of marines, and land forces if serving as marines, shall have one eighth part to be equally divided amongst them.

The other two eighth parts of the seizure to be divided into shares and distributed to the persons composing the remaining part of the crew or crews in the following proportions, viz.

The second class of petty officers, namely; coopers, armourers' mates, caulkers' mates, sail-makers' mates, captains of the foretop, captains of the maintop, captains of the afterguard, captains of the mast, yeoman of the signals, coxswains of pinnaces, volunteers of the first and second classes, corporals of marines and of land forces, if serving as marines, four shares each.

To the gunners' crew, carpenters' crew, sail-makers' crew, coopers' crew, able seamen, yeomen of the storerooms, ordinary seamen, drummers, private marines, and other soldiers, if serving as marines, three shares each.

To the cooks' mates, barbers, landsmen, admirals' domestics, captains' stewarts, pursers' stewarts, and all other ratings not above enumerated, except boys, together with all passengers and other persons borne as supernumeraries and doing duty and assisting on board (excepting officers acting by order, who are to receive the share of that rank in which they shall be acting), two shares each.

receive

And the boys of every description one share each.

Secondly.—In the cases of seizures made by the officers and men of cutters, schooners, brigs, and other armed vessels of war commanded by lieutenants, when not in company with other ships or vessels, the produce being divided as before into eighth parts.

The lieutenant or lieutenants to have three eighth parts, unless under the command of a flag officer or officers, in which case such flag officer or officers to have one eighth part, and the lieutenant or lieutenants the other two.

The share of the master to be one eighth part.

The surgeon, or surgeons assistant (when there is no surgeon), mates, midshipmen, and clerks, to have one eighth part.

The following petty officers, namely; sail-makers, gunners' mates, boatswains' mates, carpenters' mates, quartermasters, captains of the forecastle, pilots, and serjeants of marines, or land forces serving as marines, shall have one eighth part to be equally divided amongst them. The remaining two eighth parts to be divided into shares and distributed to the other part of the crew in the following proportions, namely;

To the remaining petty officers, viz.

Captains of the foretop, captains of the mast, corporals of marines, and volunteers of the first and second classes, four shares each.

To the able seamen, ordinary seamen, and marines and soldiers serving as marines, three shares each.

To the landsmen and all other ratings not before enumerated, together with passengers, and other persons borne as supernumeraries doing duty and assisting on board, two shares each.

Boys one share each.

When cutters, schooners, brigs, and other armed vessels are in company with other ships, their officers and crews are to share with their respective classes on board the fleet.

Thirdly.—All rewards for arrests and seizures made by tenders employed by my order, or by the order of the Lord High Admiral, or any Commissioners for executing the office of Lord High Admiral for the time being, or by boats or officers belonging to and detached from your Majesty's ships and vessels, are to be shared by the officers and men of the ship or vessel to which such boat or officers belong, in the same manner as if the seizure was made by the said ship or vessel.

Fourthly.—In all cases in which supernumeraries, whether officers or men, shall be borne by any such order as aforesaid, they shall share with the respective ranks in which they may be acting.

Fifthly.—The following regulations to be established with respect to the share before mentioned, to be given to the flag-officer, or officers under whose command the capturing ship may be.

That a captain, commander, or commanding officer of a ship or vessel shall be deemed to be under the command of a flag when he shall have actually received some order directly from, or be acting in execution of some order issued by, a flag-officer, and in the event of his being directed to join a flag-officer on any station, he shall be deemed to be under the command of such flag-officer from the time when he arrives within the limits of the station, and shall be considered to continue under the command of the flag-officer of such station until he shall have received some order directly from, or be acting in execution cution of some order issued by, some other flag-officer, or by my order, or that of the Lord High Admiral, or any Commissioners for executing the office of Lord High Admiral for the time being.

That a flag-officer, commander in chief, where there is but one flag-officer upon service, shall have to his own use the one third part of the said three eighths of the seizures made by ships and vessels under his command.

That when ships or vessels under the command of several flags, which belong to separate stations, shall happen to be joint captors, the captain or commanding officer of each ship and vessel, and the commander in ships which shall have a commander on board with the captain, shall pay one third of the share or shares to which he or they may be respectively entitled to the flag-officer or officers of the station to which such ship or vessel shall belong; but the captains or commanders, or commanding officers of such ships or vessels, as shall be under orders from me, or the Lord High Admiral, or any Commissioners for executing the office of Lord High Admiral, being joint captors with other ships or vessels under a flag or flags, shall retain the whole of their share.

That if a flag-officer is sent to command in the ports of this kingdom, he shall have no share in the seizures made by ships or vessels that have sailed or shall sail from that port by my order, or that of the Lord High Admiral, or any Commissioners for executing the office of Lord High Admiral.

That when more than one flag-officer shall be serving together, the one third part of the three eighths of the seizures made by any ships or vessels of the fleet or squadron shall be divided in the following proportions, viz.

If there be but two flag-officers, the chief shall have two third parts of the said third of three eighths, and the other shall have the remaining third part; but if the number of flag-officers be more than two, the chief shall have only one half, and the other half shall be equally divided amongst the junior flag-officers.

That commodores of the first class shall be esteemed as flag-officers with respect to the one third of the three eighth parts of the seizures made, whether commanding in chief or serving under command.

That a captain of the fleet shall be deemed and taken to be a flag-officer, and shall be entitled to a part or share of seizures as the junior flag-officer of such fleet or squadron.

Sixthly.—And with respect to the cases hereinbefore proposed to be excepted, as to the officers, petty officers, and seamen belonging to your Majesty's Fleet, and officers and non-commissioned officers and privates of Royal Marines, who shall be stationed and employed on shore in the prevention of smuggling, commonly called the Coast Blockade Service, and acting under my orders, or those of the Lord High Admiral, or of any Commissioners for executing the office of Lord High Admiral for the time being, I beg leave most humbly to submit that your Majesty may be graciously pleased to establish the following regulations, viz.

That the whole amount of the reward payable for the arrest of smugglers, which shall be made by the officers and men stationed and employed on shore, whether such arrest be made on the water or on the land, shall, if the same be made by only one person, be paid to the person actually making the arrest.

But where there shall be more than one person actually making the arrest, or acting in especial concert or co-operation for that purpose, whether the same be made on the water or on the land, such reward to be divided into equal shares, and to be distributed amongst the several persons actually making the the arrest, or acting together in especial concert or co-operation for that purpose, in the following proportions, viz.

To the captain twelve shares.

To the commander eleven shares.

To the sea lieutenants, captains of marines, and masters, ten shares each.

To lieutenants and quartermasters of marines, second masters, pursers, surgeons, boatswains, gunners, carpenters, mates, and pilots, nine shares each.

To assistant-surgeons, and all persons comprehended in the general scheme before set forth, under the denomination of the first class of petty officers (except mates and second pilots), eight shares each.

To all persons comprehended in the said general scheme, under the denomination of the second class of petty officers, seven shares each.

And to all able seamen, ordinary seamen, landmen, and all other persons, six shares each.

Seventhly.—And with respect to seizures to be made by the officers, seamen, and marines employed on shore for the prevention of smuggling, under such orders as aforesaid, it is further humbly submitted that, in order to encourage the exertions of individuals in the vigilant performance of their duty, one tenth part of the whole reward, payable in respect of such seizures, shall be set apart for, and paid to, the individual making the seizure, over and above his share of the general distribution. And if there shall be more than one person, such tenth part shall be divided and distributed amongst the persons actually making the seizure, or present thereat, and co-operating therein, over and above their respective shares of the general distribution, in the following proportions, viz.

To the sea lieutenants, captains of marines, and masters, ten shares each.

To lieutenants and quartermasters of marines, second second masters, pursers, surgeons, boatswains, gunners, carpenters, mates, and pilots, nine shares each.

To assistant-surgeons, and all other persons (except mates and pilots) comprehended in the said general scheme, under the denomination of the first class of petty officers, eight shares each.

To all persons comprehended in the same scheme, under the denomination of the second class of petty officers, seven shares each.

To all able seamen, ordinary seamen, landmen, marines, and all other persons, six shares each.

Eighthly.—And it having been found expedient, for the more effectually carrying on the said service on shore, to increase the number of sea lieutenants, and to diminish the number of mates and midshipmen employed therein; and it being therefore expedient, in order to give an adequate proportion of seizures to the lieutenants, that an apportionment should be made of the shares of seizures amongst the commissioned and warrant officers, and first class of petty officers, employed on shore as aforesaid, different to what is proposed in the general scheme before set forth, it is further humbly submitted to your Majesty's consideration,

That the three-eighth equal parts appointed by the said scheme to be distributed amongst the said three classes (after the deduction of one-tenth part, as above proposed), shall be united, and, being subdivided into equal parts or shares, shall be distributed in the following proportions, viz.

To each individual in the class of sea lieutenants five shares.

To each individual (except assistant-surgeons) in the class of warrant-officers, including mates and pilots, three shares.

And to the assistant-surgeons, and each individual in the class denominated the first class of petty-officers (except mates and pilots), two shares.

And

And that in all other respects, save as herein excepted, the distribution of rewards for the detention of smugglers, and for seizures under the laws relating to the Revenue of Customs, shall be made according to the general scheme before set forth.

And to prevent any misunderstanding of these regulations, it is further most humbly proposed, that all the officers and crews belonging to any of your Majesty's ships or vessels employed in the service usually denominated the Coast Blockade Service, and on the muster-books of which ships or vessels the persons stationed and employed on shore shall be borne, shall, whether actually on shore or afloat, be considered as part of the force employed on shore within the meaning of these regulations.

Ninthly.—In case any difficulty shall arise in respect to any of the regulations hereby proposed, and not herein sufficiently provided for, the same shall be referred to me, or to the Lord High Admiral, or to the Commissioners for executing the office of Lord High Admiral, and my directions, or those of the Lord High Admiral, or of such Commissioners as aforesaid for the time being, thereupon shall be final, and have the same force and effect as if herein stated.

Lastly.—With regard to the preparations of the lists for the distribution of seizures,

I beg most humbly to propose, that the captains and commanders of your Majesty's ships and vessels of war shall, on making any seizure, transmit as soon as may be, or cause to be transmitted, to the Commissioners of the Navy a true and perfect list of the names of all the officers, seamen, marines, soldiers, and others, who were actually on board of His Majesty's ships or vessels of war under their command at the time of the seizure, and also those who were absent on duty at such time; which list shall contain the quality of the service of each person son on board, together with the description of the men, taken from the description books of the capturing ships or vessels, and their several ratings, and be subscribed by the captain or commanding officer, and three or more of the chief officers on board.

And the Commissioners of the Navy, or any three or more of them, shall examine, or cause to be examined, such lists by the muster books of such ships and vessels and lists annexed thereto, to see that such lists do agree with such muster books and annexed lists, as to the names, qualities, or ratings of the officers, seamen, marines, soldiers, and others belonging to such ships and vessels; and upon request shall forthwith grant a certificate, signed by any three or more of them, of the truth of any list transmitted to them, to the agents nominated and appointed by the seizors; and also upon application to them the said Commissioners shall give, or cause to be given, to the said agents, all such lists from the muster books of any such ships and vessels and annexed lists, as the agents shall find requisite for their direction in making distribution to the parties entitled to share in the produce of such rewards and seizures, and shall otherwise be aiding and assisting to the said agents all such matters as shall be necessary.

And whereas by an Order in Council, dated the thirtieth of September one thousand eight hundred and twenty-five, your Majesty was graciously pleased to declare and direct that the bounty in respect of the crews of piratical ships and vessels given by an Act of Parliament, made and passed in the sixth year of your Majesty's reign, ch. 49, intituled "An Act for encouraging the capture or destruction of piratical ships and vessels," and the produce of all ships, vessels, boats, goods, and other property of and taken from pirates, and also the bounty in lieu of salvage given by the said last mentioned Act, should be paid, divided, and distributed tributed in the manner, form, and proportion expressed in the said Order in Council of the twenty-third day of June one thousand eight hundred and twenty-four, hereby proposed to be revoked.

I do, therefore, further most humbly submit, whether your Majesty will not be graciously pleased also to revoke the said Order of the thirtieth of September one thousand eight hundred and twenty-five, and further to declare and direct that the produce of all such ships, vessels, boats, goods and other property of and taken from pirates, and likewise the several bounties payable under the said last mentioned Act, in respect of the crews of such piratical ships, vessels, and boats, and also in lieu of salvage, or in any other respect, shall be paid to and divided and distributed amongst the officers, seamen, marines, soldiers, and others, who shall have been actually on board any of your Majesty's ships or vessels of war, or hired armed ships, at the actual taking, sinking, burning, or otherwise destroying of any ship, vessel, or boat, manned by pirates or persons engaged in acts of piracy, in the same manner, form and proportion as is expressed in the general scheme hereinbefore proposed for the distribution of rewards payable under the laws for the prevention of smuggling; save and except that no flag officer, or other person not actually present at the capture or destruction of the pirate vessel, shall be entitled to share in any distribution of the bounty in respect of the crews of such piratical ships, vessels, and boats.

And whereas by another Order in Council, dated the fourteenth day of March one thousand eight hundred and twenty-seven, your Majesty was graciously pleased to order and direct, that the proceeds, bounties, and other sums of money, payable under an Act of Parliament, made and passed in the fifth year of your Majesty's reign, cap. 113, intituled "An Act to amend and consolidate the laws " relating to the abolition of the slave trade," to the commanders, officers, and crews of your Majesty's ships and vessels should be distributed and divided according to the rules and regulations directed and provided by the said Order in Council of the twenty-third day of June one thousand eight hundred and twenty-four, which is hereinbefore proposed to be revoked; I do, therefore, further most humbly propose, that your Majesty will be graciously pleased also to revoke the said Order in Council of the fourteenth day of March one thousand eight hundred and twenty-seven; and further to declare and direct, that all and every the proceeds, bounties, and other sums of money, which shall become payable to the officers, seamen, marines, and soldiers, on board your Majesty's ships and vessels of war, or hired armed ships, under and by virtue of the said Act, to amend and consolidate the laws relating to the abolition of the slave trade, in respect of captures and seizures made under the said Act, shall be divided and distributed amongst such officers, seamen, marines, and soldiers, in the same manner, form, and proportion, as is expressed in the general scheme hereinbefore set forth.

His Majesty, having taken the said report into consideration, was pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to approve thereof, and also of the scheme therein submitted for the future distribution of seizures amongst the officers, seamen, and marines of His Majesty's Fleet.

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, and His Royal Highness the Lord High Admiral, are to give the necessary directions herein, as to them may respectively appertain. Jas. Buller.

INVESTITURE OF HIS IMPERIAL MAJESTY NICHOLAS THE FIRST, EMPEROR AND AUTOCRATOR OF ALL THE RUSSIAS, WITH THE ENSIGNS OF THE MOST NOBLE ORDER OF THE GARTER.

St. Petersburgh, July 10, 1827.

HIS Majesty, as Sovereign of the Most Noble Order of the Garter, having been pleased, by a Commission under His Royal Sign Manual and the Great Seal of the Order, to constitute and appoint the Most Honourable Francis-Charles Marquess and Earl Earl of Hertford, Earl of Yarmouth, Viscount Beauchamp, Baron Conway of Ragley, and Baron Conway of Killultagh, one of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, Knight Companion of the said Most Noble Order, Knight Grand Cross of the Royal Hanoverian Guelphic Order, and Knight Grand Cross of the Imperial Order of St. Anne of Russia: and Sir George Nayler, Knight, Garter Principal King of Arms, Knight of the Royal Hanoverian Guelphic Order, and Knight Commander of the Royal Portuguese Order of the Tower and Sword, to be His Majesty's Plenipotentiaries for investing His Imperial Majesty the Emperor and Autocrator of All the Russias with the ensigns of the said Most Noble Order of the Garter, the said Plenipotentiaries and their suites embarked at Sheerness on board His Majesty's ship Briton, on the 6th of June last, and arrived in this City on the 26th of the same month.

The Emperor having signified his pleasure to receive the Investiture at Tsarskoe-Selo, one of the summer residences of His Imperial Majesty, the Plenipotentiaries and their suites proceeded thither, and on the morning of the 8th instant arrived at the apartments which had been previously prepared for them in the Great Palace. From thence the Plenipotentiaries were conveyed to the Palace of Alexandrofsky (where the Emperor then was) in His Imperial Majesty's own state carriage, drawn by six horses richly caparisoned, accompanied by the Grand Master of the Ceremonies, the Count Zavadofsky, preceded by another state carriage, containing two Assistant-Masters of the Ceremonies, and followed by three other state carriages, containing the suites of the Plenipotentiaries, the whole escorted by numerous attendants on foot and horseback in their imperial state liveries. On their arrival at the Entrance-hall of the Palace of Alexandrofsky, the Plenipotentiaries were received by the Chamberlains of His Imperial Majesty's Household, and conducted ducted by the Great Officers of State to the Emperor's Closet, into which they were introduced by the Prince Wolkonsky, Minister of the Imperial Household, and the Count de Nesselrode, the Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, and were honoured with a private audience of His Imperial Majesty, at which His Excellency the Marquess of Hertford delivered to the Emperor the Sovereign's Letters of Credence. His Excellency then presented to His Imperial Majesty, the several Noblemen and Gentlemen composing the Mission. The Plenipotentiaries were afterwards in the same manner introduced to Her Imperial Majesty the Empress, by whom they were likewise honoured with a private audience; after which His Excellency the Marquess of Hertford presented to Her Imperial Majesty the Noblemen and Gentlemen of the suite. The Mission was then conducted with the same state to the Palace of Paulowsky, where the Plenipotentiaries were, with similar ceremonies, introduced to Her Imperial Majesty the Empress Mother, Maria-Feodorowna, and also to their Imperial Highnesses the Grand Duke Michael Paulowitch and the Grand Duchess Helena Paulowna, his Consort; by each of whom they were honoured with private audiences, and were most graciously received; His Excellency the Marquess of Hertford afterwards presented to Her Majesty, and to the Grand Duke and the Grand Duchess, the several Noblemen and Gentlemen attached to the Mission. After the private audiences, the Empress Mother was pleased to invite the Plenipotentiaries and the other Members of the Embassy to a splendid dinner, at which Her Imperial Majesty presided in person. A brilliant evening party and supper succeeded, which was also honoured by the august presence of Her Majesty and of their Imperial Highnesses the Grand Duke and Duchess.

On the following day (the 9th of July), the preparatory arrangements for the accustomed ceremonies having been made, the Noblemen and Gentlemen appointed to assist at the solemnity, assembled in the apartments of His Excellency the First Plenipotentiary; and the Grand Master of the Ceremonies, Count Zavadofsky, and other Officers of State having arrived to attend the Plenipotentiaries, the procession moved from thence to the Alexandrofsky Palace, at one o'clock, in the following order:

Servants of the Imperial Household, on horseback and on foot, in state liveries.

A state carriage, drawn by six horses richly caparisoned, conveying two Assistant-Masters of the Ceremonies.

His Imperial Majesty's state carriage, drawn by six horses richly caparisoned, in which were the two Plenipotentiaries, accompanied by Count Zavadofsky.

Five of His Imperial Majesty's state carriages, each drawn by six horses, conveying the persons who carried the Insignia.

On entering the Great Court of the Palace, the Mission was received by a guard of honour, and on alighting from the carriages was conducted by the Officers of the Imperial Household to the Ambassadors' Hall, from which (the Insignia being arranged and placed upon crimson velvet cushions) a procession was formed as follows:

Francis Martin, Esq. Windsor Herald, in his tabard and collar of S. S. bearing the Statutes.

Lord Seymour, bearing the Garter.

Lord Marcus Hill, bearing the Ribband and George.

Lieutenant-Colonel Sir Henry-Frederick Cooke, K. C. H. and M. P. (Secretary to His Excellency the First Plenipotentiary), bearing the Sword.

Walter-

Walter-Aston Blount, Esq. Registrar to the Mission, bearing the Surcoat and Hood.

Captain Francis-George Seymour, R. N. bearing the Mantle and Cordon.

James Grange, Esq. Secretary to the Mission, bearing the Collar.

Captain Henry Meynell, R. N. and M. P. bearing the Cap and Feathers, and the Star.

The Plenipotentiaries, viz.

Sir George Nayler, Garter Principal King of Arms, in his Mantle, Chain, and Badge, bearing his Sceptre, and carrying the Sovereign's Commission,

Attended by

Frederick-Stormont Murray, Esq. R.N. carrying the Crown of Garter.

His Excellency the Marquess of Hertford, K.G. wearing the full Habit and Collar of the Order, and the Collar of the Royal Hanoverian Guelphic Order,

Attended by

Francis-Hugh Seymour, Esq. carrying His Excellency's Hat and Feathers.

At the entrance of the Audience-Hall, the Plenipotentiaries were received by the Great Officers of State. The procession then advanced to the Audience-Chamber, in which were placed two Chairs of State, the one on the right representing the Stall of the Sovereign of the Order, the other on the left for His Imperial Majesty, each surmounted by an escocheon of their Majesties Arms within the Order of the Garter, subinscribed with their Royal and Imperial titles.

The Mission advanced into the Presence of the Emperor with the usual reverences, and was received by His Imperial Majesty, surrounded by His Ministers and Great Officers of State.

The Noblemen and Gentlemen who bore the insignia, having arranged themselves on each side of the Audience-Chamber, His Excellency the Marquess of Hertford, advancing towards the Emperor, delivered an address declaratory of the object of the Mission, to which His Imperial Majesty was pleased to make a most gracious reply. His Excellency then receiving from Garter the Statutes of the Order, presented them to His Imperial Majesty, who delivered them to the Count de Nesselrode, the Minister for Foreign Affairs. His Imperial Majesty thereupon delivered to the Plenipotentiaries an Instrument, under His Imperial Sign Manual, and the Great Seal of Russia, containing His Majesty's acceptance of the Order, under the usual reservations.

The Commission was in like manner presented to the Emperor, who delivered the same to Count Matuszevitch, the Under Secretary of State, by whom it was read aloud and returned to Garter.

The Plenipotentiaries then buckled the Garter below the left knee of His Imperial Majesty, Garter reading the Admonition in Latin. His Imperial Majesty was next invested with the Ribband and George appendant, Garter reading the Admonition.

His Imperial Majesty then delivered his Sword, which Garter received as the ancient fee appertaining to his Office, and wore during the remainder of the ceremony.

The Plenipotentiaries thereupon invested the Emperor with the Sword of the Order, after which His Imperial Majesty received the Surcoat, Hood, and Mantle, Garter reading the Admonition. His Imperial Majesty was next invested with the Collar, Garter pronouncing the relative Admonition.

The Plenipotentiaries then presented to the Emperor the Cap and Feathers, and the Star of the Order; and His Imperial Majesty delivered to them an Instrument, under His Imperial Sign Manual and the the Great Seal of Russia, containing his nomination of a Proxy, in the event of an Installation in the Royal Chapel of St. George at Windsor.

Garter then, after the usual reverences to the Sovereign's Stall and to His Imperial Majesty, proclaimed in French the style of His Majesty the King of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, Sovereign of the Most Noble Order of the Garter, and the style of His Imperial Majesty the Emperor and Autocrator of All the Russias, Knight of the said Most Noble Order of the Garter, whereupon the Investiture being concluded, the Plenipotentiaries, with their respective suites, making their reverences, withdrew from the Imperial Presence, and were reconducted to the apartments of the First Plenipotentiary in the Great Palace, in the same manner and with the same state as they had been conveyed to the Palace of Alexandrofsky.

In the afternoon, by command of the Emperor, a grand dinner was given to the Plenipotentiaries and their suites, the Ministers of State, and other persons of distinction, at which Prince Wolkonsky, Minister of His Imperial Majesty's Household, presided.

The Mission was received with every possible mark of attention, and the whole ceremony was conducted with a splendour and magnificence suitable to the dignity of this Most Noble Order.

GEORGE NAYLER,
Garter Principal King of Arms.

At the Court at St. James's, the 30th day of April 1827,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Exeellent Majesty in Counell.

WHEREAS by an Act of Parliament, passed in the sixth year of His Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to regulate the trade of the "British possessions abroad," it is, amongst other things, enacted, that it shall be lawful for His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Counell, by any Order or Orders in Counell, to be issued from time to time, to give such directions, and make such regulations, touching the trade and commeree to and from any British possessions on or near the Continent of Europe, or within the Mediterranean Sea, or in Africa, or within the limits of the East India Company's Charter, exeepting the possessions of the said Company, as to His Majesty in Counell shall appear most expedient or salutary; and it is further enacted, that if any goods shall be imported or exported in any manner contrary to such Order of His Majesty in Counell, the same shall be forfeited, together with the ship importing or exporting the same: And whereas it is expedient, in pursuanee of the powers vested in His Majesty by the said Act of Parliament, to make some temporary regulations touching the trade and commeree to and from the British possessions aforesaid, within the limits of the East India Company's Charter, until permanent regulations in that behalf ean be finally made and established; His Majesty is therefore pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Counell, and in pursuanee and exereise of the authority in Him vested in and by the said Act of Parliament, to order and

and direct, and it is hereby ordered, that the trade and commerce of His Majesty's settlements and territories at the Cape of Good Hope, and of His Majesty's island of Mauritius, and of His Majesty's island of Ceylon, and of His Majesty's settlements and territories in New South Wales, and of His Majesty's island of Van Dieman's Land, with the respective dependencies thereof, shall, from and after the arrival of this present Order within any of the said several settlements, territories, and islands, be regulated in the manner following, that is to say, all such laws, rules, orders, and regulations as were in force within the settlements, territories, and islands aforesaid, or any of them, for the regulation of the trade and commerce thereof, upon the first day of July in the year one thousand eight hundred and twenty-five, shall, until further order be made by His Majesty in this behalf, revive and continue, and be of full force, virtue, and effect within the several settlements, territories, and islands aforesaid respectively; and if any goods shall be imported or exported in any manner contrary hereto, such goods, together with the ship importing or exporting the same, shall incur and become liable to such forfeiture as in the said Act of Parliament is mentioned in that behalf: provided always, that nothing herein contained shall extend, or be construed to extend, to contravene, vary, alter, or in any wise affect the said Act of Parliament, so far as the same hath made express provision respecting the trade to and from the said island of Mauritius, or respecting the exportation of sugar or wine from any British possession within the limits of the East India Company's Charter, nor so far as the said Act of Parliament hath expressly mentioned or referred to the trade of any of His Majesty's possessions within the limits aforesaid: provided also, that nothing in this present Order contained shall extend, or be construed to extend, to contravene, vary, alter, or in any wise affect affect two other Acts of Parliament, passed in the sixth year of His Majesty's reign, intituled respectively "An Act for the encouragement of British "shipping and navigation," and "An Act for the "registering of British vessels," or any other Acts or Act passed in amendment of any of the Acts hereinbefore mentioned: provided also, that nothing in this present Order contained shall be construed to revoke, abrogate, or any wise alter certain Orders of His Majesty in Council respecting the trade of France, and of the United States of America respectively, bearing date the first of June one thousand eight hundred and twenty-six, and the twenty-seventh of July one thousand eight hundred and twenty-six, and the sixteenth of December one thousand eight hundred and twenty-six, or to infringe or interfere with any Treaties of Commerce or Navigation entered into by His Majesty with any Foreign State or Power:

And the Right Honourable Viscount Goderich, one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, is to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

FROM THE

LONDON GAZETTE of AUGUST 10, 1827.

At the Court at Windsor, the 16th day of July 1827,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by a certain Act of Parliament, passed in the sixth year of the reign of His present Majesty, intituled "An Act to regulate the "trade of the British possessions abroad," after reciting, that "by the Law of Navigation foreign "ships are permitted to import into any of the "British possessions abroad, from the countries to "which they belong, goods, the produce of those "countries, and to export goods from such posses-"sions to be carried to any foreign country what-"ever, and that it is expedient that such permission "should be subject to certain conditions," it is enacted, "that the privileges thereby granted to "foreign ships shall be limited to the ships of those "countries which, having colonial possessions, shall "grant the like privileges of trading with those "possessions to British ships, or which, not having "colonial possessions, shall place the commerce "and navigation of this country, and of its posses-"sions abroad, upon the footing of the most favoured "nation, unless His Majesty, by His Order in "Council, shall in any case deem it expedient to "grant the whole or any of such privileges to the "ships of any foreign country, although the con"ditions

" ditions aforesaid shall not in all respects be fulfilled " by such foreign country:"

And whereas by an Order of His Majesty in Council, bearing date the third day of May one thousand eight hundred and twenty-six, after reciting, that within the dominions of His Majesty the King of Prussia, the commerce and navigation of this country, and of its possessions abroad, have been placed upon the footing of the most favoured nation, His Majesty was pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to declare, that the ships of and belonging to the dominions of His Majesty the King of Prussia were entitled to the privileges so granted as aforesaid by the Law of Navigation, and might import from such the dominions of His Majesty the King of Prussia, into any of the British possessions abroad, goods, the produce of such dominions, and might export goods from such British possessions abroad to be carried to any foreign country whatever:

And whereas by an Order of His Majesty in Council, bearing date the first day of June one thousand eight hundred and twenty-six, after reciting, that the conditions mentioned and referred to in and by the said Act of Parliament, had not in all respects been fulfilled by the Government of France, but that, nevertheless, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, did deem it expedient to grant certain of the privileges aforesaid to the ships of France; His Majesty did therefore, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, and in pursuance and exercise of the powers and authority in him vested by the said Act of Parliament, declare and grant, that it should and might be lawful for French ships to import into any of the British possessions in the West Indies and America, from the dominions of His Most Christian Majesty, such goods, being the produce of those dominions, as were mentioned and enumerated in the table subjoined to the said Order, and to export goods from such British possessions to be carried to any foreign country whatever; and the table referred to in the said Order was as follows, that is to say, wheat, flour, biscuit, bread, meal, peas, beans, rye, callavances, oats, barley, Indian corn, rice, shingles, red oak staves or headings, white oak staves or headings, wood, lumber, wood hoops, live stock, hay and straw, coin and bullion, diamonds, salt, fruit and vegetables fresh, cotton wool, and all articles subject on importation to a duty ad valorem, on which articles the amount of such duty should not at the time of importation exceed seven pounds ten shillings for every hundred pounds of the value of the same:

And whereas by an Order in Council, bearing date the sixteenth of December one thousand eight hundred and twenty-six, after reciting the said last-mentioned Order of the first day of June one thousand eight hundred and twenty-six, His Majesty, by and with the advice aforesaid, and in pursuance and exercise of the powers and authority in him vested by the said Act, did declare and grant, that it should be lawful for French ships to import into the island of Mauritius, from the dominions of His Most Christian Majesty, such goods, being the produce of those dominions, as are mentioned and enumerated in the table subjoined to the said Order in Council of the first day of June one thousand eight hundred and twenty-six, and for the prevention of any doubts respecting the true meaning and effect of the said Order in Council of the first day of June one thousand eight hundred and twenty-six, and of the said Order of the sixteenth day of December one thousand eight hundred and twenty-six, His Majesty was further pleased to order and declare, that neither the said Order in Council of the first day of June one thousand eight hundred and twenty-six, nor the said Order of the sixteenth day of December cember one thousand eight hundred and twenty-six, should extend, or be construed to extend, to authorise the importation by French ships into any of the British possessions in the West Indies and America, or into the island of Mauritius, from the dominions of His Most Christian Majesty, of any wine, being the produce of those dominions:

And whereas by an Order in Council, bearing date the twenty-seventh day of July one thousand eight hundred and twenty-six, after reciting, that the conditions mentioned and referred to in the said Act of Parliament had not in all respects been fulfilled by the Government of the United States of America, and that, therefore, the privileges so granted as aforesaid by the Law of Navigation to foreign ships could not lawfully be exercised or enjoyed by the ships of the United States aforesaid, unless His Majesty, by His Order in Council, should grant the whole or any of such privileges to the ships of the United States aforesaid, and that His Majesty did deem it expedient to grant to the ships of the said United States such of the said privileges as were thereinafter mentioned, His Majesty did, with the advice of His Privy Council, and in pursuance and exercise of the powers and authorities in him vested by the said Act of Parliament, declare and grant, that it was and should be lawful for the ships of the United States aforesaid to import into any of the British possessions abroad, from the said United States, goods, the produce of the United States aforesaid, and not enumerated in the table of prohibitions and restrictions in the said Act contained, and to export goods from such British possessions abroad to be carried to any foreign country whatever; provided always, that such goods so imported should be subject and liable to the payment of the duties imposed and made payable under and by virtue of the said Act of Parliament; provided also, and His Majesty did further, with the advice aforesaid, declare, that the privileges so granted

as aforesaid to the ships of the said United States, so far as respected the British possessions in the West Indies and on the Continent of South America, and so far as respected the Bahama Islands and the Bermuda or Somer Islands, and so far as respected His Majesty's settlements in the island of Newfoundland and the several islands belonging to and dependent on those settlements, should absolutely cease and determine upon and from the first day of December in the year one thousand eight hundred and twenty-six; and it was further provided, and His Majesty did further, with the advice aforesaid, declare, that the privileges so granted as aforesaid to the ships of the United States, so far as respected the British possessions on the Western Coast of Africa, should absolutely cease and determine upon and from the said first day of December one thousand eight hundred and twenty-six; and it was further provided, and His Majesty, with the advice aforesaid, did further declare, that the privileges so granted as aforesaid to the ships of the said United States, so far as respected the colony of the Cape of Good Hope and the islands, settlements, and territories belonging thereto and dependent thereupon, and so far as respected the island of Mauritius and the several islands and territories belonging thereto or dependent thereupon, and so far as respected the island of Ceylon and the several islands and territories belonging thereto and dependent thereupon, should absolutely cease and determine upon and from the first day of March in the year one thousand eight hundred and twenty-seven; and it was further provided, and His Majesty did, with the advice aforesaid, declare, that the privileges so granted as aforesaid to the ships of the said United States, so far as respected His Majesty's settlements in the island of New Holland and the several islands and territories belonging thereto and dependent thereupon, and so far as respected the island of Van Dieman's Land and the several islands and territories belonging thereto and dependent thereupon, should absolutely cease and determine upon and from the first day of May one thousand eight hundred and twenty-seven; and it was thereby provided, that nothing therein contained should extend, or should be construed to extend, to infringe or interfere with the Convention of Commerce and Navigation concluded between His late Majesty King George the Third and the United States of America, bearing date the third day of July one thousand eight hundred and fifteen, or the further Convention of Commerce and Navigation concluded between His said late Majesty and the United States of America, bearing date the twentieth day of October one thousand eight hundred and eighteen; or to prevent ships of the said United States from importing into any of the British possessions in Europe, or from exporting from such British possessions in Europe, any goods which under or by virtue of the said Convention, or either of them, or of the several Acts of Parliament made for carrying such Conventions into effect, could or might be lawfully imported into or exported from such British possessions:

And whereas by an Act, passed in the seventh and eighth years of His present Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to amend the laws relating to the "Customs," after reciting or taking notice of the said Act so passed as aforesaid in the sixth year of His Majesty's reign, and after reciting that unless some period were limited for the fulfilment by foreign countries of the conditions mentioned and referred to in the said recited Act, the trade and navigation of the United Kingdom and of the British possessions abroad, could not be regulated by fixed and certain rules, but would continue subject to changes dependent upon the laws from time to time made in such foreign countries; it is therefore enacted, that no foreign country shall hereafter be deemed to have ful-fulfilled the conditions so prescribed as aforesaid in and by the said Act, as to be entitled to the privileges therein mentioned, unless such foreign country had in all respects fulfilled those conditions within twelve months next after the passing of the said Act, that is to say, on or before the fifth day of July one thousand eight hundred and twenty-six; and for the better ascertaining what particular foreign countries are permitted by law to exercise and enjoy the said privileges, it is further enacted, that no foreign country shall hereafter be deemed to have fulfilled the beforementioned conditions, or to be entitled to the privileges aforesaid, unless and until His Majesty shall by some Order or Orders to be by him made, by the advice of His Privy Council, have declared that such foreign country hath so fulfilled the said conditions, and is entitled to the said privileges; provided always, and it is thereby declared and enacted, that nothing therein contained, extends, or shall be construed to extend to make void or annul any Order or Orders in Council theretofore issued, under the authority or in the pursuance of the said recited Act, or to take away or abridge the powers vested in His Majesty in and by the said Act, or any of those powers, any thing therein contained to the contrary in anywise notwithstanding:

And whereas it is expedient that, in pursuance of the powers vested in His Majesty in and by the said recited Acts of Parliament, His Majesty should declare what Foreign Powers have fulfilled the before mentioned conditions, and are entitled to the privileges aforesaid, His Majesty therefore, in pursuance and exercise of the powers vested in him in and by the said Acts of Parliament, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, is pleased to order and declare that the several Orders in Council, bearing date respectively the third day of May one thousand eight hundred and twenty-six, the first day of June one thousand eight hundred and twenty-six, the sixteenth

day of December one thousand eight hundred and twenty-six, and the twenty-seventh day of July one thousand eight hundred and twenty-six, hereinbefore respectively recited, shall be, and the same are hereby, confirmed and continued in full force and effect: and His Majesty doth further, in pursuance and exercise of the powers aforesaid, and with the advice aforesaid, declare and grant that it shall be lawful for French ships to import into the British possessions on the western coast of Africa, and into the colony of the Cape of Good Hope, and into the island of Ceylon, and into His Majesty's settlements in the island of New Holland, and into the island of Van Dieman's Land, and into the several islands and territories dependent upon and belonging to the several settlements or colonies aforesaid, from the dominions of His Most Christian Majesty, such goods being the produce of those dominions, as are mentioned and enumerated or referred to in the table subjoined to the said Order in Council of the first day of June one thousand eight hundred and twenty-six. And in further pursuance of the powers vested in His Majesty, in and by the said Acts of Parliament so passed as aforesaid in the seventh and eighth years of His Majesty's reign, His Majesty, with the advice aforesaid, is further pleased to declare that the conditions mentioned and prescribed in and by the said Act so passed as aforesaid in the sixth year of His Majesty's reign, have in all respects been fulfilled by the Government of His Majesty as King of Hanover, and by the Government of His Majesty the King of Sweden and Norway, and by the Government of His Serene Highness the Duke of Oldenburgh, and by the Free Hanseatic Republics of Lubeck, Bremen, and Hamburgh, and by the State of Colombia, and by the United Provinces of Rio de la Plata, and by the United States of Mexico: and His Majesty is further pleased to declare that the ships of and belonging to the dominions of

His Majesty as King of Hanover, or of His Majesty the King of Sweden and Norway, or of His Serene Highness the Duke of Oldenburgh, or of the Free Hanseatie Republies of Lubeek, Bremen, and Hamburgh, or of the State of Colombia, or of the United Provinces of Rio de la Plata, or of the United States of Mexieo, are entitled to the privileges so granted as aforesaid by the Law of Navigation, and may respectively import from sueh the dominions to whieh they respeetively belong into the British possions abroad, goods, the produee of such dominions respeetively, and may export goods from the British possessions abroad, to be carried into any foreign country whatever:

And whereas His Majesty, by and with the adviee of His Privy Council, doth deem it expedient to grant the privileges aforesaid to the ships of the dominions of His Majesty the Emperor of All the Russias; His Majesty doth therefore, by the adviee aforesaid, and in pursuanee and exercise of the powers and authority in him vested by the said last recited Aet of Parliament, deelare and grant that it shall and may be lawful for Russian ships to import into any of the British possessions abroad, from the dominions of His Majesty the Emperor of All the Russias, goods, the produce of those dominions, and to export from such possessions, to be earried to any foreign eountry whatever; and His Majesty, by the adviee aforesaid, is further pleased to declare and grant that it shall and may be lawful for ships of or belonging to any kingdom or state within the limits of the East India Company's charter, to import from the dominions to which they respectively belong, goods, the produce of sueh dominions, into the eolony of the Cape of Good Hope, and into the island of Ceylon, and into the island of Mauritius, and into His Majesty's settlements in the island of New Holland, and in the island of Van Dieman's Land, and into the several islands and territories dependent upon and be-belonging to the several settlements or colonies aforesaid, and to export goods from such several settlements or colonies, or their respective dependencies, to be carried into any foreign country whatever; provided always that nothing herein contained shall extend, or be construed to extend, to take away or abridge any power now vested in His Majesty's subjects in the last mentioned settlements or colonies, of trading with any kingdom or state, within the limits of the said Company's charter, and in further pursuance of the said Act of Parliament, His Majesty, by the advice aforesaid, doth declare that no foreign country is entitled to the privileges so granted as aforesaid by the Law of Navigation, other than and except the foreign countries hereinbefore particularly mentioned; and that no foreign ships can or may lawfully import into or export from any of the British possessions abroad, any goods, except so far as the right of such foreign countries to which such ships may belong is hereinbefore declared; provided always, that nothing herein contained, extends, or shall be construed to extend, to infringe or interfere with any Treaty or Convention subsisting between His Majesty and any Foreign State or Power; provided also, and it is further ordered and declared, that nothing herein, or in the said former Orders in Council, or any of them contained, extends, or shall be construed to extend, to His Majesty's garrison and territory at Gibraltar, or to the island of Malta, but that goods shall and may be imported into and exported from Gibraltar and Malta, in the same manner in all respects as though this present Order, or the said former Orders, had not been made:

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, and the Right Honourable Viscount Goderich, one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, are to give the necessary directions herein, as to them may respectively appertain. Jas. Buller.

FROM THE

LONDON GAZETTE of SEPTEMBER 11, 1827.

At the Court at Windsor, the 3d day of Septembe 1827,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the fourth year of His present Majesty's reign, intituled " An " Act to authorise His Majesty, under certain cir- " cumstances, to regulate the duties and drawbacks " on goods imported or exported in foreign vessels, " and to exempt certain foreign vessels from pilot- " age," His Majesty is authorised, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, or by His Majesty's Order or Orders in Council, to be published from time to time in the London Gazette, to authorise the importation into, or exportation from, the United Kingdom, or from any other of His Majesty's dominions, of any goods, wares, or merchandise which may be legally imported or exported in foreign vessels, upon payment of such and the like duties only, and with the like drawbacks, bounties, and allowances as are charged or granted upon similar goods, wares, or merchandise when imported or exported in British vessels; provided always, that before any such Order or Orders shall be issued, satisfactory proof shall have been laid before His Majesty and His Privy Council, that goods, wares, and merchandise imported into, or exported from, the foreign country in whose favour such remission of duties, or such drawbacks, bounties, or allowances shall be granted, are charged with the same duties, and are allowed the same drawbacks, bounties, or allowances when imported into, or exported from, such foreign country in British vessels, as are levied or allowed on similar goods, wares, and merchandise when imported or exported in vessels of such country:

And whereas by an Act, passed in the fifth year of His present Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act "to indemnify all persons concerned in advising, "issuing, or acting under a certain Order in Council "for regulating the tonnage duties on certain "foreign vessels, and to amend an Act of the last "session of Parliament for authorising His Majesty, "under certain circumstances, to regulate the duties "and drawbacks on goods imported or exported in "any foreign vessels," His Majesty is authorised (in certain cases) by and with the advice of His Privy Council, or by His Majesty's Order or Orders in Council, to be published from time to time in the London Gazette, to permit and authorise the entry into any port or ports of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, or of any other of His Majesty's dominions, of any foreign vessels, upon payment of such and the like duties of tonnage only as are or may be charged or granted upon or in respect of similar British vessels:

And whereas satisfactory proof has been laid before His Majesty and His Privy Council, that goods, wares, and merchandise imported into or exported from the ports of the United Provinces of Rio de la Plata, the State of Colombia, and the United States of Mexico respectively, are charged with the same duties and are allowed the same drawbacks, bounties, or allowances when imported or exported in British vessels as are levied or allowed on similar goods, wares, and merchandise when imported into or exported from the said ports in vessels of the said United Provinces of Rio de la Plata, and of the said State of Colombia, and of the said United States of Mexico respectively; and that British vessels are charged with no other or higher tonnage duties on their entrance into the ports of Rio de la Plata, Colombia, and Mexico respectively, than are levied on vessels of the said United Provinces of Rio de la Plata, the said State of Colombia, and the said United States of Mexico respectively:

His Majesty, by virtue of the powers vested in him by the Acts above recited, and by and with the advice of His Privy Council, is, therefore, pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, that from and after the date of this Order, vessels of the United Provinces of Rio de la Plata, of the State of Colombia, and of the United States of Mexico respectively, entering the ports of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland in ballast, or laden direct from any of the ports of Rio de la Plata, Colombia, and Mexico respectively, or departing from the ports of the said United Kingdom, together with the cargoes on board the same, such cargoes consisting of articles which may be legally imported or exported, shall not be subject to any other or higher duties or charges whatever than are or shall be levied on British vessels entering or departing from such ports, or on similar articles when imported into, or exported from, such ports in British vessels; and also that such articles, when exported from the said ports in vessels of the United Provinces of Rio de la Plata, of the State of Colombia, and of the United States of Mexico respectively, shall be entitled to the same bounties, drawbacks, and allowances that are granted on similar articles when exported in British vessels:

Provided nevertheless, that nothing herein contained shall extend, or be construed to extend, to any duties or charges on account of tonnage, light or harbour dues, pilotage, salvage in case of damage or shipwreck, or any other local charges to which any vessels of the United Provinces of Rio de la Plata, of the burthen of one hundred and twenty tons, or of any less burthen, are now by law liable in the ports of any of His Majesty's dominions; it appearing to His Majesty and His Privy Council, that British vessels, of the burthen of one hundred and twenty tons, or of any less burthen, are subject in the ports of the said United Provinces to higher duties and charges than are levied in those ports on vessels of the said United Provinces of the burthen of one hundred and twenty tons or of any less burthen.

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury are to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

C. C. Greville.

In pursuance of the directions of an Act, passed in the twenty-fourth year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act "to repeal so much of two Acts, made in the tenth "and fifteenth years of the reign of His present "Majesty, as authorises the Speaker of the House "of Commons to issue his warrant to the Clerk of "the Crown, for making out writs for the election "of Members to serve in Parliament, in the manner "therein mentioned, and for substituting other pro-"visions for the like purposes:"

At the Court at Windsor the 18th day of October 1827,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by a certain Act of Parliament, passed in the sixth year of the reign of His present Majesty, intituled "An Act to regulate the "trade of the British possessions abroad," after reciting, that "by the Law of Navigation foreign "ships are permitted to import into any of the "British possessions abroad, from the countries to "which they belong, goods, the produce of those "countries, and to export goods from such possessions to be carried to any foreign country whatever, and that it is expedient that such permission "should be subject to certain conditions," it is enacted, enacted, " that the privileges thereby granted to " foreign ships shall be limited to the ships of those " countries which, having colonial possessions, shall " grant the like privileges of trading with those " possessions to British vessels, or which, not having " colonial possessions, shall place the commerce " and navigation of this country, and of its posses- " sions abroad, upon the footing of the most favoured " nation, unless His Majesty, by His Order in " Council, shall in any case deem it expedient to " grant the whole or any of such privileges to the " ships of any foreign country, although the con- " ditions aforesaid shall not in all respects be fulfilled " by such foreign country:"

And whereas by an Act, passed in the seventh and eighth years of His present Majesty's reign, intituled " An Act to amend the laws relating to the " Customs," after reciting or taking notice of the said Act so passed as aforesaid in the sixth year of His Majesty's reign, and after reciting that unless some period were limited for the fulfilment by foreign countries of the conditions mentioned and referred to in the said recited Act, the trade and navigation of the United Kingdom and of the British possessions abroad, could not be regulated by fixed and certain rules, but would continue subject to changes dependent upon the laws from time to time made in such foreign countries; it is therefore enacted, that no foreign country shall hereafter be deemed to have fulfilled the conditions so prescribed as aforesaid in and by the said Act, as to be entitled to the privileges therein mentioned, unless such foreign country had in all respects fulfilled those conditions within twelve months next after the passing of the said Act, that is to say, on or before the fifth day of July one thousand eight hundred and twenty-six; and for the better ascertaining what particular foreign countries are permitted by law to exercise and enjoy the said privileges, it is further enacted, that no foreign country shall hereafter be deemed to have fulfilled the beforementioned conditions, or to be entitled to the privileges aforesaid, unless and until His Majesty shall by some Order or Orders to be by him made, by the advice of His Privy Council, have declared that such foreign country hath so fulfilled the said conditions, and is entitled to the said privileges; provided always, and it is thereby declared and enacted, that nothing therein contained, extends, or shall be construed to extend, to make void or annul any Order or Orders in Council theretofore issued, under the authority or in the pursuance of the said recited Act, and to take away or abridge the powers vested in His Majesty in and by the said Act, or any of those powers, any thing therein contained to the contrary in anywise notwithstanding:

And whereas the conditions mentioned and referred to in the said Acts of Parliament have not in all respects been fulfilled by the Government of the United States of America, and therefore the privileges so granted as aforesaid by the Law of Navigation to foreign ships, cannot lawfully be exercised or enjoyed by the ships of the United States aforesaid, unless His Majesty, by His Order in Council, shall grant the whole or any of such privileges to the ships of the United States aforesaid:

And whereas His Majesty doth deem it expedient to permit the exportation of salt and fruit, in certain vessels of the said United States of America, from certain of the Bahama Islands; His Majesty doth, therefore, in pursuance and exercise of the powers vested in him in and by the said Acts of Parliament, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, declare and grant, that it shall be lawful for ships of the United States of America, arriving in ballast at any port or place in the Bahama Islands in which a custom-house is or shall be established, to export salt and fruit, or either of them, from such port or place, to be carried to any foreign country whatever;

ever; subject, nevertheless, to the payment of all such duties as by any law in force within the said islands are or shall be payable upon such ships, or upon the exportation of any such salt or fruit:

And His Majesty is further pleased, with the advice aforesaid, to order, that this present Order shall take effect and be in force in the said islands, so soon as the Governor or Officer administering the Government thereof for the time being shall have made known the same to the inhabitants of the said islands, by a Proclamation to be by him for that purpose issued, and not before:

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, and the Right Honourable William Huskisson, one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, are to give the necessary directions herein, as to them may respectively appertain. Jas. Buller.

FROM THE

LONDON GAZETTE EXTRAORDINARY of NOVEMBER 10, 1827.

Admiralty-Office, November 10, 1827.

DISPATCHES, of which the following are copies or extracts, have been this day received at this Office, addressed to John Wilson Croker, Esq. by Vice-Admiral Sir Edward Codrington, K. C. B. Commander in Chief of His Majesty's ships in the Mediterranean:

His Majesty's Ship Asia, in the Port of SIR, Navarin, October 21, 1827.

I HAVE the honour of informing His Royal Highness the Lord High Admiral, that my colleagues, Count

Count Heyden and the Chevalier de Rigny, having agreed with me that we should come into this port, in order to induce Ibrahim Pacha to discontinue the brutal war of extermination, which he has been carrying on since his return here from his failure in the Gulf of Patras, the combined squadrons passed the batteries, in order to take up their anchorage, at about two o'clock yesterday afternoon.

The Turkish ships were moored in the form of a crescent, with springs on their cables, the larger ones presenting their broadsides towards the centre, the smaller ones in succession within them, filling up the intervals.

The combined fleet was formed in the order of sailing in two columns, the British and French forming the weather or starboard line, and the Russian the lee line.

The Asia led in, followed by the Genoa and Albion, and anchored close alongside a ship of the line, bearing the flag of the Capitana Bey, another ship of the line, and a large double banked frigate, each thus having their proper opponent in the front line of the Turkish fleet. The four ships to windward, part of the Egyptian squadron, were allotted to the squadron of Rear-Admiral de Rigny; and those to leeward in the bight of the crescent, were to mark the stations of the whole Russian squadron; the ships of their line closing those of the English line, and being followed up by their own frigates. The French frigate Armide was directed to place herself alongside the outermost frigate, on the left hand entering the harbour; and the Cambrian, Glasgow, and Talbot next to her, and abreast of the Asia, Genoa, and Albion; the Dartmouth and the Musquito, the Rose, the Brisk, and the Philomel were to look after six fire vessels at the entrance of the harbour. I gave orders that no gun should be fired, unless guns were first fired by the Turks; and those orders were strictly observed. The three English English ships were accordingly permitted to pass the batteries and to moor, as they did with great rapidity, without any act of open hostility, although there was evident preparation for it in all the Turkish ships, but upon the Dartmouth sending a boat to one of the fire-vessels, Lieutenant G. W. H. FitzRoy and several of her crew were shot with musketry. This produced a defensive fire of musketry from the Dartmouth, and La Syrene, bearing the flag of Rear-Admiral de Rigny; that was succeeded by a cannon shot at the Rear-Admiral from one of the Egyptian ships, which of course brought on a return, and thus very shortly afterwards the battle became general. The Asia, although placed alongside the ship of the Capitana Bey, was even nearer to that of Moharem Bey, the Commander of the Egyptian ships; and since his ships did not fire at the Asia, although the action was begun to windward, neither did the Asia fire at her. The latter indeed sent a message "that he would not fire at all," and therefore no hostility took place betwixt our two ships, for some time after the Asia had returned the fire of the Capitana Bey.

In the mean time, however, our excellent pilot, Mr. Peter Mitchell, who went to interpret to Moharem my desire to avoid bloodshed, was killed by his people in our boat alongside. Whether with or without his orders I know not; but his ship soon afterwards fired into the Asia, and was consequently effectually destroyed by the Asia's fire, sharing the same fate as his brother Admiral on the starboard side, and falling to leeward a mere wreck. These ships being out of the way the Asia became exposed to a raking fire from vessels in the second and third line, which carried away her mizen-mast by the board, disabled some of her guns, and killed and wounded several of her crew. This narration of the proceedings of the Asia, would probably be equally ap-applicable to most of the other ships of the fleet. The manner in which the Genoa and Albion took their stations was beautiful: and the conduct of my brother Admirals, Count Heyden and the Chevalier de Rigny throughout, was admirable and highly exemplary.

Captain Fellowes executed the part allotted to him perfectly, and with the able assistance of his little but brave detachment saved the Syrene from being burnt by the fire-vessels. And the Cambrian, Glasgow, and Talbot, following the fine example of Capitaine Hugon, of the Armide, who was opposed to the leading frigate of that line, effectually destroyed their opponents and also silenced the batteries. This bloody and destructive battle was continued with unabated fury for four hours, and the scene of wreck and devastation which presented itself at its termination was such as has been seldom before witnessed. As each ship of our opponents became effectually disabled, such of her crew as could escape from her endeavoured to set her on fire, and it is wonderful how we avoided the effects of their successive and awful explosions.

It is impossible for me to say too much for the able and zealous assistance which I derived from Captain Curzon, throughout this long and arduous contest; nor can I say more than it deserves for the conduct of Commander Baynes and the Officers and crew of the Asia, for the perfection with which the fire of their guns was directed, each vessel in turn, to which her broadside was presented, became a complete wreck. His Royal Highness will be aware that so complete a victory by a few, however perfect, against an excessive number, however individually inferior, cannot be acquired but at a considerable sacrifice of life; accordingly I have to lament the loss of Captain Bathurst, of the Genoa, whose example on this occasion is well worthy the imitation of his survivors. Captain Bell, commanding the royal marines of the Asia, an excellent Officer, was killed early in the action, in the steady performance of his duty; and I have to mourn the death of Mr. William Smith, the Master, admired for the zeal and ability with which he executed his duty, and beloved by all for his private qualities as a man. Mr. Henry S. Dyer, my Secretary, having received a severe contusion from a splinter, I am deprived temporarily of his valuable assistance in collecting and keeping up the general returns and communications of the squadrons; I shall therefore retain in my office Mr. E. J. T. White, his first Clerk, whom I have nominated to succeed the Purser of the Brisk. I feel much personal obligation to the Honourable Lieutenant-Colonel Craddock, for his readiness, during the heat of the battle, in carrying my orders and messages to the different quarters after my Aides-de-Camp were disabled; but I will beg permission to refer His Royal Highness for further particulars of this sort to the details of the killed and wounded, a subject which it is painful for me to dwell upon: when I contemplate, as I do with extreme sorrow, the extent of our loss, I console myself with the reflection that the measure which produced the battle was absolutely necessary for obtaining the results contemplated by the Treaty, and that it was brought on entirely by our opponents.

When I found that the boasted Ottoman word of honour was made a sacrifice to wanton, savage devastation, and that a base advantage was taken of our reliance upon Ibrahim's good faith, I own I felt a desire to punish the offenders. But it was my duty to refrain, and refrain I did; and I can assure His Royal Highness, that I would still have avoided this disastrous extremity, if other means had been open to me. The Asia, Genoa, and Albion, have each suffered so much, that it is my intention to send them to England so soon as they shall have received at Malta the necessary repairs for their voyage. The Talbot, being closely engaged with a double banked frigate, has also suffered considerably, as well as others of the smaller vessels; but I hope their defects are not more than can be made good at Malta. The loss of men in the Turko-Egyptian ships must have been immense, as His Royal Highness will see by the accompanying list, obtained from the Secretary of the Capitana Bey, which includes that of two out of the three ships to which the English division was opposed. Captain Curzon having preferred continuing to assist me in the Asia, I have given the charge of my dispatches to Commander Lord Viscount Ingestrie, who, besides having had a brilliant share in the action, is well competent to give His Royal Highness the Lord High Admiral any further particulars he may require.

Talbot

I inclose, for His Royal Highness's further information, a letter from Captain Hamilton, descriptive of the proceedings of Ibrahim Pacha, and the misery of the country which he has devastated, a protocol of a conference which I had with my colleagues, and the plan and order for entering the port, which I gave out in consequence.

I have, &c.

(Signed) EDWD. CODRINGTON,
Vice-Admiral.

No. I.—(Translation.)

THE Admirals commanding the squadrons of the three Powers which signed the Treaty of London, having met before Navarin for the purpose of concerting the means of effecting the object specified in the said Treaty, viz. an armistice de facto between the Turks and the Greeks, have set forth in the present protocol the result of their conference.

Considering that after the provisional suspension of hostilities, to which Ibrahim Pacha consented in his conference of the 25th of September last with the English and French Admirals, acting likewise in the name of the Russian Admiral, the said Pacha did the very next day violate his engagement by causing his fleet to come out, with a view to its proceeding to another point in the Morea;

Considering that since the return of that fleet to Navarin, in consequence of a second requisition addressed to Ibrahim by Admiral Codrington, who had met him near Patras, the troops of this Pacha have not ceased carrying on a species of warfare more destructive and exterminating than before, putting women and children to the sword, burning the habitations, and tearing up trees by the roots, in order to complete the devastation of the country;

Considering that, with a view of putting a stop to atrocities, which exceed all that has hitherto taken place, the means of persuasion and conciliation, the representations made to the Turkish Chiefs, and the advice given to Mehemet-Ali and his son, have been treated as mockeries, whilst they might, with one word, have suspended the course of so many barbarities;

Considering that there only remains to the Commanders of the allied squadrons the choice between three modes of fulfilling the intentions of their respective Courts, namely:

1st. The continuing, throughout the whole of the winter, a blockade, difficult, expensive, and perhaps, useless, since a storm may disperse the squadrons, and afford to Ibrahim the facility of conveying his destroying army to different points of the Morea and the islands.

2dly. The uniting the allied squadrons in Navarin itself, and securing, by this permanent presence, the inaction of the Ottoman fleets; but which mode alone leads to no termination, since the Porte persists in not changing its system.

3dly. The proceeding to take a position with the squadrons in Navarin, in order to renew to Ibrahim propropositions which, entering into the spirit of the Treaty, were evidently to the advantage of the Porte itself.

After having taken these three modes into consideration, we have unanimously agreed that this third mode may, without effusion of blood and without hostilities, but simply by the imposing presence of the squadrons, produce a determination leading to the desired object.

We have in consequence adopted it, and set it forth in the present protocol. — October 18, 1827.

Extract of a Letter from Captain Hamilton, of His Majesty's Ship Cambrian, to Vice-Admiral Sir Edward Codrington, dated Kitries, the 18th October 1827.

I HAVE the honour of informing you, that I arrived here yesterday morning in company with the Russian frigate Constantine, the Captain of which ship had placed himself under my orders. On entering the Gulph, we observed by clouds of fire and smoke, that the work of devastation was still going on. The ships were anchored off the pass of Ancyro, and a joint letter from myself and the Russian Captain was dispatched to the Turkish Commander, a copy of which I inclose; the Russian and English Officers, the bearers of it, were not allowed to proceed to head-quarters, nor have we yet receeived any answer. In the afternoon, we, the two Captains, went on shore to the Greek quarters, and were received with the greatest enthusiasm. The distress of the inhabitants driven from the plain, is shocking! women and children dying every moment of absolute starvation, and hardly any having better food than boiled grass! I have promised to send a small quantity of bread to the caves in the mountains, where these unfortunate wretches have taken refuge.

It is supposed that if Ibrahim remained in Greeee, more than a third of its inhabitants will die of absolute starvation.

Statement made by the Secretary to the Capitana Bey in the Port of Navarin, October 21, 1827.

3 Turkish line-of-battle ships: 1 Turkish admiral—84 guns, 850 men, 650 killed; 1 ditto, 84 guns, 850 men; 1 ditto, 76 guns, 850 men, 400 killed.
4 Egyptian double-banked frigates—64 guns each, from 450 to 500 men.
15 Turkish frigates—48 guns, from 450 to 500 men.
18 Turkish corvettes, 8 Egyptian ditto—from 18 to 24 guns, 200 men.
4 Turkish brigs, 8 Egyptian ditto—19 guns, from 130 to 150 men.
5 Egyptian fire-vessels.

35,000 Egyptian troops in the Morea, 4000 of whom came with the above ships.

No. IV.—(Translation.)

AS the squadrons of the Allied Powers did not enter Navarin with an hostile intention, but only to renew to the Commanders of the Turkish fleet propositions which were to the advantage of the Grand Signior himself, it is not our intention to destroy what ships of the Ottoman navy may yet remain, now that so signal a vengeance has been taken, for the first cannon-shot which has been ventured to be fired on the allied flags.

We send therefore one of the Turkish Captains, fallen into our hands, as a prisoner, to make known to Ibrahim Pacha, Mouharem Bey, Tahir Pacha, and Capitana Bey, as well as to all the other Turkish Chiefs, that if one single musket or cannon shot be again fired on a ship or boat of the Allied Powers, we shall immediately destroy all the remaining vessels, as well as the Forts of Navarin, and that we shall consider such new act of hostility as a formal declaration of the Porte against the three Allied Powers, and of which the Grand Signior and his Pachas must suffer the terrible consequences.

But if the Turkish Chiefs, acknowledging the aggression they have committed by commencing the firing, abstain from any act of hostility, we shall resume those terms of good understanding which they have themselves interrupted. In this case they will have the white flag hoisted on all the forts before the end of this day. We demand a categorical answer, without evasions, before sun-set.

Signed by the English, French, and Russian Admirals.

No. VII.—(Translation.)

SIR, Syrene, at Navarin, October 23, 1827.

I CONSIDER your approbation, and the letter which you have addressed to me, as a testimony most honourable to myself and to the Officers under my orders; and I shall preserve the letter as a valuable record of your esteem, and I also hope of your friendship.

In the action of the 20th, you set us the example; we could not do better than follow it.

I have the honour to be, with the highest consideration, your Excellency's most faithful servant,

(Signed) H. DE RIGNY, Rear-Admiral.

To His Excellency Vice-Admiral Codrington.

No. VIII.—(Translation.)

SIR, Syrene, at Navarin, October 23, 1827.

I HASTEN to do myself the honour to inform your Excellency, from a detailed report made by Captain Hugon, of the Armide, that the excellent manœuvre of Captain Davies, when the Rose came and resolutely cast her anchor within pistol-shot of two Turkish corvettes, relieved the Armide in a few minutes from her unfavourable position; and it is my duty, and at the same time a great pleasure to me, to assure your Excellency, that on this occasion Captain Davies did every thing that could be expected of a brave and experienced Officer.

Allow me also to take this opportunity of returning my thanks to Captain Fellowes for the assistance which the Syrene received from the boats of the Dartmouth, when, with much skill and bravery, they they attacked and turned off the fire-ships ready to come down upon us.

I am, with the highest consideration, your very faithful servant,

(Signed) H. DE RIGNY, Rear-Admiral.

LONDON GAZETTE of NOVEMBER 16, 1827.

At the Court at Windsor the 18th day of October 1827,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council

WHEREAS the time limited by His Majesty's Order in Council, of the twenty-third of May last, for prohibiting the exportation of gun-powder, salt-petre, or any sort of arms or ammunition, to any any port or place on the Coast of Africa (except to any ports or places within the Streights of Gibraltar), will expire on the twenty-third day of November next; and whereas it is judged expedient that the said prohibition should be continued for some time longer; His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, doth therefore hereby order, require, and command, that no person or persons whatever (except the Master-General of the Ordnance for His Majesty's Service), do, at any time during the space of six months (to commence from the twenty-third of November next), presume to transport any gun-powder or salt-petre, or any sort of arms or ammunition, to any port or place on the Coast of Africa (except to any ports or places within the Streights of Gibraltar) or ship or lade any gun-powder or salt-petre, or any sort of arms or ammunition, on board any ship or vessel, for the transporting of the same into any such ports or places on the Coast of Africa (except as above excepted), without leave or permission in that behalf first obtained from His Majesty or His Privy Council, upon pain of incurring and suffering the respective forfeitures and penalties imposed in that behalf by an Act, passed in the sixth year of His present Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act for the general "regulation of the Customs:"

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, His Royal Highness the Lord High Admiral, the Lord Warden of the Cinque Ports, the Master-General and the rest of the Principal Officers of the Ordnance, and His Majesty's Secretary at War, are to give the necessary directions herein as to them may respectively appertain.

At

At the Court at St. James's, the 16th day of November 1827,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the depredations which have for some time been committed upon the commerce of His Majesty's subjects in the Mediterranean seas by armed vessels, piratically cruizing under the Greek flag, have of late greatly increased, and have been accompanied with acts of cruelty and barbarity, which have rendered the navigation of those seas highly perilous; and His Majesty has in vain applied for the prevention of these outrages to the persons exercising the powers of Government in Greece, who, however willing, are unable effectually to repress such excesses, owing to the disturbed state of the country and the disorder prevailing in the several Islands of the Greek Archipelago, and His Majesty is thereby laid under the necessity of providing for the same:

To that end, it has appeared to His Majesty that the most efficacious means by which the persons and lawful commerce of His Majesty's subjects in the Mediterranean seas can be adequately protected, until some Government shall be established in Greece competent to put a stop to all irregularities of the nature complained of, will be to prevent, so far as possible, any armed vessels, bearing the Greek flag, from putting to sea, such ships of war only excepted as are belonging to or acting under the orders of the persons exercising the powers of Government in Greece.

For this purpose His Majesty is pleased to order and declare, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, and it is hereby ordered and declared, that that instructions be issued forthwith to His Majesty's naval forces in the Mediterranean, authorising and directing them to seize and send into some port belonging to (or being under the power and protection of) His Majesty, every armed vessel which they shall meet with at sea under the Greek flag, or fitted out and armed at any Greek port, such ships of war only excepted as are belonging to, or acting under the orders of, the persons exercising the powers of Government in Greece; and that they shall duly provide, that all such vessels, with their crews, shall be safely detained in the ports to which they may be sent, until His Majesty's further pleasure respecting them shall be made known.

And with a view to prevent, as much as possible, any hardships or inconveniences that may arise in the execution of this Order, as it may effect any Greek cruizer which, being at sea at the time when this Order will take effect in the Mediterranean, may not receive immediate notification thereof, it is further ordered that the Commanders of His Majesty's ships, who may be charged with the execution of this Order, shall, in the event of their meeting with any armed vessels at sea, bearing the Greek flag, that may be liable to the operation of this Order between the day upon which the Order shall be notified to the persons exercising the authorities of Government in Greece, and fifteen days from the date thereof, furnish them with certified copies of this Order, and warn them to proceed forthwith to their respective ports; and that such armed vessels shall not be detained until the expiration of the said fifteen days, unless it shall appear that after such notification of the Order and warning they shall not have complied therewith, or shall have been guilty of plundering or searching any trading vessel under the British flag:

And

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, and His Royal Highness the Lord High Admiral, are to give the necessary directions herein as to them may respectively appertain. C. C. Greville.

Court of King's-Bench, November 20, 1827.

The following Warrant, under the King's Sign Manual, having been issued under the authority of the Statute 3 George IVth, cap. 102, was this day openly and publicly notified and declared in this Court, in pursuance of the said Statute, viz.

GEORGE, R.

Whereas by an Act, passed in the session of Parliament holden in the third year of our reign, intituled "An Act to repeal an Act, of the first and second year of His present Majesty, for facilitating the dispatch of business in the Court of King's-Bench, and to make further provisions in lieu thereof," it is, among other things, enacted, that from and after the passing of the said Act, it shall and may be lawful to and for Us, Our heirs and successors, and We and They are thereby authorised, from time to time, as to Us or Them shall seem meet, by Warrant under Our or Their Sign Manual, directed to the Judges of Our said Court, to direct and require the Judges of Our said Court, or any two or more of them, to meet at Serjeants-Inn-Hall, Westminster-Hall, or some other convenient place to be by them appointed, on such and so many days in the vacation or interval between any Terms as to us, Our heirs and successors, shall seem fit and proper, for the dispatch of such matters, as at the end of the Term mentioned in such Warrant may be depending in Our said Court, whether on the Crown or Plea side thereof; and whereas We have been given to understand, that numerous matters are now depending in Our said Court, which cannot be dispatched during this present Michaelmas Term, and which ought to be dispatched with all convenient speed; now, therethereforc, We do hereby, in pursuance of the said Act, direct and require you the Lord Chief Justice, and the other Judges of our said Court before Us, or any two or more of you, to meet at Serjeants-Inn-Hall, Westminster-Hall, or some other convenient place to be by you appointed according to the said Act, on Friday the thirtieth day of November instant, and from thence daily until and upon Saturday the fifteenth day of December next, for the dispatch of such matters as may be depending in Our said Court at the end of the present Michaelmas Term, whether on the Crown or Plea side thereof; provided always, that if the attendance of any one of you at the session of Oyer and Terminer and Gaol Delivery for the county of Middlesex, or at any such session on any Circuit, shall be found requisite, during any part of the time herein mentioned, and another of you shall also, during such attendance, be sitting for the trial of causes at Nisi Prius, then it shall be in the discretion of the remaining two of you either to meet or not to meet, in obedience hereto, according to the nature of the business that may be likely to come before you during such attendance.

Given at Our Court at Windsor, the thirteeth day of November one thousand eight hundred and twenty-seven, in the eighth year of Our reign.

By His Majesty's command,

LANSDOWNE.

A PROCLAMATION.

GEORGE, R.

WHEREAS Our Parliament stands prorogued to Thursday the twentieth day of this instant December; We, with the advice of our Privy Council, do hereby publish and declare, that the said Parliament shall be further prorogued, on the said twentieth day of this instant December, to Tuesday the twenty-second day of January next; and We have given order to Our Chancellor of that part of Our United Kingdom called Great Britain, to prepare a commission for proroguing the same accordingly; and We do further hereby, with the advice aforesaid, declare Our Royal Will and Pleasure, that the said Parliament shall, on the said twenty-second day of January next, assemble and be held for the dispatch of divers urgent and important affairs: And the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and the Knights, Citizens, and Burgesses, and the Commissioners for Shires and Boroughs of the House of Commons, are hereby required and commanded to give their attendance accordingly, at Westminster, on the said twenty-second day of January next.

Given at Our Court at St. James's, this thirteenth day of December one thousand eight hundred and twenty-seven, and in the eighth year of Our reign.

GOD save the KING.

At the Court at St. James's, the 16th day of November 1827,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the sixth year of His Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act "to regulate the trade of the British possessions "abroad," it is, amongst other things, enacted, that no goods shall be imported into, nor shall any goods, except the produce of the fisheries in British ships, be exported from any of the British possessions in America by sea, or from or to any place other than the United Kingdom, or some other of such possessions, except into or from the several ports in such possessions called free ports, enumerated or described in the table in the said Act of Parliament contained:

And it is thereby provided, that if His Majesty shall deem it expedient to extend the provisions of the said Act to any port or ports not enumerated in the said table, it shall be lawful for His Majesty, by Order in Council, to extend the provisions of the said Act to such port or ports, and it is enacted, that from and after the day mentioned in such Order in Council, all the privileges and advantages of the said Act, and all the provisions, penalties, and forfeitures therein contained, shall extend, and be deemed and construed to extend, to any such port or ports respectively, as fully as if the same had been inserted and enumerated in the said table at the time of passing the said Act.

And whereas His Majesty doth deem it expedient to extend the provisions of the said Act to the port of Charlotte Town, in Prince Edward's Island; His Majesty doth therefore, in pursuance and exercise of the the powers vested in him by the said Act of Parliament, and with the advice of His Privy Council, order, and it is hereby ordered, that, from and after the date of this Order, the provisions of the said Act of Parliament respecting free ports shall be, and the same are hereby, extended to the said port of Charlotte Town, in Prince Edward's Island:

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, and the Right Honourable William Huskisson, one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, are to give the necessary directions herein as to them may respectively appertain. C. C. Greville.

Admi-

Admiralty-Office, December 18, 1827.

Description of the Uniform which, in pursuance of His Majesty's Pleasure, signified to His Royal Highness the Lord High Admiral, is to be worn by Officers in the Royal Navy.

ADMIRAL OF THE FLEET.

COAT, blue cloth, with a white cloth stand-up collar, with two inch lace round the top and front; a slashed sleeve with blue three pointed flap and three buttons and holes; a white cuff, with two inch lace, of the Navy pattern, round the top and down the front edge; pocket flaps with three points, no buttons; the body of the coat lined with the same cloth, and the skirts lined with white kerseymere; two rows of buttons in the front, ten buttons in each row; the two rows to be three inches apart from the front of the button-hole to the centre of the button; the skirt to begin at one sixth of the circumference from the front edge, two buttons on the hips, and two buttons on the bottom of the plait; the button to be raised, gilt, one inch in diameter, indented with a round rim, and within the rim an anchor and a cable, and a crown over between two wreaths of laurel; two gold epaulettes, with forty bullions each, over a bonnet and a crescent, and edging to the strap, with silver anchor and crown and three silver stars, two stars on the crescent and one star above.

Waistcoat, single breasted, white cloth or kerseymere, with buttons half inch diameter, of the same pattern as the coat.

Trowsers of blue cloth, with gold lace, of the same width as on the coat, down the outside seams, to be worn over short boots.

Cravat or stock, black silk.

Hat, cocked; the flaps ten inches in the back, eight eight and a half inches in the front, six inches at each corner; bound with gold lace, two and a half inches wide, showing one inch and a quarter on each side, with a black silk cockade six inches wide; looped with six gold bullions, three and a half eighth of inches wide, and the two centre twisted, with a button of the same size and pattern as the coat, and tassels, with five gold and five blue bullions each.

THE SWORD, BELT, AND KNOT.

Hilt—solid, half basket guard, with raised bars and crown and anchor badge, lion head back piece; white fish-skin gripe, bound with three gilt wires; outside length, five inches and three quarters; inside length, four inches and a half.

Blade—slightly curved, with a round back, thirty-one inches and a quarter long, one inch and three eighths wide at the shoulder, with a double edged spear point.

Scabbard—black leather, top locket plain, four inches long, with plain broad hook, threaded chape six inches long, horse-shoe bottom; the hilt and mountings of brass, lacquered.

Belt—black patent leather frog shoulder belt, two inches and a quarter wide, with brass regulating buckle and loop, to be worn under the waistcoat.

Knot—blue and gold rope, twenty-three inches long, with ditto ditto vellum basket-work head, and twelve gold bullions, a piece of the same sort of cord, fourteen inches and three quarters long, is fixed to the hilt to which the knot is affixed.

ADMIRALS.

The same as the foregoing, but with three stars only on the epaulettes.

VICE-ADMIRALS.

The same, with two stars on the epaulettes.

REAR-

REAR-ADMIRALS.

The same, with one star on the epaulettes.

COMMODORES OF THE FIRST CLASS, CAPTAINS OF THE FLEET WHEN NOT FLAG OFFICERS, AND FIRST CAPTAINS OF SHIPS.

The same, but with epaulettes of Captains above three years standing.

CAPTAINS.

The same, but the lace on the collar and cuff to be one and a half inch wide, and the button to be without the laurel leaf; the epaulettes of those of three years standing to have a single anchor and crown, and of those under three years standing to have the anchor alone.

The hats the same, but bound with blacks ilk instead of gold lace, looped with four gold bullions, the two centre twisted.

COMMANDERS.

The same as Captains, but their epaulettes are to be without either crown or anchor.

LIEUTENANTS.

The same, with the lace one inch wide, and one epaulette on the right shoulder of the same description as Commanders, and a strap on the left shoulder similar to the strap of the epaulette.

The loop of the hat to be of two gold bullions twisted.

All the foregoing Officers who are to wear lace down the seams of their trowsers of the same width as that of their coat, may, when they choose, in undress, wear blue trowsers without the gold lace, and Officers of all ranks are to wear blue trowsers except in hot climates or on home service in the summer summer when all ranks are permitted to wear white Russia duck trowsers.

All the other Officers of the Fleet are to wear the same uniforms as at present established, by the regulations of 1st January 1825, for their full dresses, with the following exceptions;

The buttons which are to be of their present pattern, are not to exceed in number those on the coats of the Commissioned Officers.

Masters, mates, masters-assistants, and midshipmen, are to wear the sword of the above pattern, and volunteers of both classes are to wear dirks only.

Boatswains, gunners, and carpenters, are to wear plain round hats, and midshipmen, masters-assistants, and volunteers of both classes, are to wear round hats, as allowed for their present undress, but the loop is to be of gold twist.

The Officers of the Fleet will observe, that there is no longer any difference of full dress or undress, except in the particular of gold lace on the trowsers of Commissioned Officers, as already stated; and that at the King's or Queen's Drawing-Rooms, Officers are to wear white cloth or kerseymere breeches, with buttons of the waistcoat pattern, with white leather sword belt and white silk stockings, with gold or gilt knee and shoe buckles; on all other occasions whatsoever they are to wear blue trowsers and short boots, as already stated.

CLOAKS AND GREAT COATS.

The uniform cloaks and great coats of the Royal Navy are to be blue, lined (when lined) with blue or white.

Officers when on leave in the neighbourhood of their ships, or on such duties as in the opinions of their immediate Commanding Officers, or of the Senior Officer on the spot, do not require them to appear in the regular uniforms above described, may wear in lieu thereof, a short blue single breasted great coat, with a stand-up collar; Mates and Midshipmen wearing such coats, are to be distinguished by one row of gold twist on each cuff; Lieutenants, by one row of gold lace, a quarter of an inch wide, on each cuff; Commanders, by two rows of such lace on each cuff; and Captains, by three rows of such lace on each cuff.

If Flag Officers shall, under similar circumstances, think proper to wear great coats of the same description in lieu of the proper uniform, they are to wear their proper epaulettes upon it.

All great coats to have the appropriate button of the rank of the respective Officers.

All Officers may wear in undress at sea, a round jacket without skirts, with their appropriate buttons, and a round black hat, with a narrow black silk band and a black buckle, and a black silk or leather cockade, with a loop of the same material and half the width of the lace of their respective coats, or if they have no lace on their coats, of black silk ribbon (except Midshipmen, Masters-assistants, and volunteers, who are to have a loop of gold twist, as before stated); or a blue cloth cap, with a band round it, of half the width and material of the lace of their coats; Officers who have no lace to their coats, who now wear gold bands, may have a band of gold lace, half an inch wide, round their caps; other Officers are to wear such bands as at present.

Patterns or drawings of each of the before-mentioned articles of dress are to be seen at this Office, and at the Office of each Port Admiral; and His Royal Highness directs, that no article shall, after this this date, be made of any other pattern. Articles which have been already made of a different pattern from the foregoing, may, however, be worn till the 1st of January 1829, after which no deviation whatsoever from the establishment will be permitted.

By Command of His Royal Highness,

J. W. CROKER.
